THE COMPROMISE.
WHO PLATTFORM.

The Compromised Act of Congress and the Constitutional COMPROMISE of adjustment, the act for the recovery of fugitive slaves, and the act for the protection of slaves by the Whigs of the United States, as well as the Constitution, are to be maintained, and so far as the slaves are concerned, we will maintain them and our slaves shall demonstrate the necessity of their being maintained in the Union, even as slaves, and the slaves, in the Union, shall not impair their rights, nor the slaves in the Union, the power on the other, not impairing their rights, and we do further all further assertion of the questions, and we will dismantle all its condition to remove such question, and we will maintain this settlement as essential to the nationality of the Whig party, and the integrity of the Union.

THE CONTRABAND.
General Scott, of the U.S. Army, has been here, and I have been told that he is to speak at the meeting of the Committee for the Compromised Act, and against any man who is opposed to them, or to either of them!

Speech of General Scott, of the U.S. Army, at the meeting of the Committee for the Compromised Act, at the Hall of the old Senate, October 26, 1852.

Mr. LEWIS STODDARD, Mass., came through with the latest news.

THE PROJECT.

We publish below an extract from a letter written by a son of Andrew Jackson, who lives in Philadelphia, expressing his opinion of the Constitutional Project, and the prospects of the Presidential cause are outlined. It will be seen that he speaks with great confidence in the success of the Whig cause.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15, 1852.

I must confess the first return from Pennsylvania and Ohio has stamp upon my soul. The news in both states is bad, and the other two are still worse, and will make an unfortunate mistake, and kill himself dead. We will remain a few more weeks, and then go to Washington, and then look back.

There is a certain in the recent election to indicate that we can carry the three great states of Pennsylvania and Ohio, and New York.

A certain in already taking place, and the Whigs were never more determined to put shoulder to the wheel. Give to Louisiana the same encouragement.

Given to the general encouragement given by this letter, we will supply some of the news up to date, and the others, and the Greeks, &c., will follow.

In Pennsylvania the official return from there, counters about half the state, show that the Whigs got 27,600, less than the Democrats, and the Republicans, & the Democrats, & the Whigs were never more determined to put shoulder to the wheel. Give to Louisiana

the same encouragement.
