WASHINGTON, Feb. 20th, 1833. The Hease of Representatives adjourned at rather an early hour, yesterday, leaving the Tarff Bill (Mr Verplanck's,) pretty nearly where they found it in the morning; the question depending, at the time of the adjournment b ing on reconsidering the vote of the day preceding, b which a daty of two cents per lb. upon foreign cotton wa inserted in the bill

CONGRESSIONAL ANALYSIS.

IN SENATE-February 19th. Mr Johnson presented a memorial from the merchants of New Orleans, praying that the value of foreign coins may be fixed by law; which was referred to the committee TARIFF.

Mr Clay from the select dommittee to which was referred the bill to modify the several acts, imposing duties on imports, reported the bill with various amendments. Mi proper time another amendment would be offered on the subject of the valuation of goods, which would be calculated to concilate the conflicting opinions which had pre-vailed in reference to that point. He was happy to say that although there was so short an interval for the action of the two honeus on this bill, the committee entertained strong hopes that it would be found practicable to effec edation of this question before the close of the present session. He was directed to move that the amendments be printed, and further to move that the bil and amendments be made the special order for to-morrow with the understanding that if the measure now panding before the Senate should not be disposed of by that time, the bill now reported would not be pressed to interfere with

The amondments were then ordered to be printed, and the bill and amendments were made the special order for REVENUE COLLECTION BILL

The Senate being about to pass to the third reading of the bill to provide further for the collection of the duties on
