It is asserted that the duchess De Herri had effected her escape from La Vendee.

It was expected at the last advices that martial law would cesse in a day or two.

One or two men whe had been engaged in the recent disturbances had been tried and found guilty. The sourt of Cassation was still engaged with the appeals. No execution had taken place under the sentence of the courts assembled by the authority of martial law. One of the Paris papers mentions that Louis Phillips will proclaim a general amnesty in the marriage of his daughter with Leopold.

HOLLAND AND BRYSTEER.—A London evening pa attacked, harrasaed, and at length almost exterminated, only thirty persons of twelve hundred who composed the expedition, ever returning to Scotland. The capital subscribed for the purposes of the company was therefore entirely lost, consisting of the sum of 900, 800 of which 400,000 belonged to the people of Scotland, 300 000 to the English, and 200,000 to the people of Holland and Hamburg. The aettlement of the composing was at the report of the composition of the compo the company was at the mouth of the river of Darich, and the town of New Caledonia still appears upon the ancient charts. The origin, progress, and unfortunate termination of this noble project are described by Sir John Dalrymple, in the twentieth volume of his Mem-oirs of Great Britain and Ireland, the ruin of the colnists being there attributed to the injustice and preju-dices of William the Third.

There are also great advantages to navigation connected with this project, for the equinoctial current and the region of the northeast trade wind must be crossed from Europe to Parto Bello; these are perpetually favorable to outward bound vessels, and the usual lightness of the winds and serenity of the weather in this part of the Atlantic are remarkably favorable to steam navigation.
