lact. The result does not surprise, though it may grieve the community. The course of the Legislature was anticipated. It was known that the Constitution contained an article, in virtue of which any civil officer much the addressed out of office, and it was believed that the General Assembly would not hesitate to avail itself of this provision. That it has done so is but another evidence of the intense bitterness of party feeling prevailing at the Capitol.

Is this, however, the be-all and the end-all of this extraordinary and unprecedented ransaction? Is Mr. Brill, armed with the omnission of Governor Wicklers, forthwith repair to the Sheriff a office, oust the present incumbent, and take summary possession the patronage and emoluments of the Sheri

The American Council and Convention.

PHIADELPIIA, Feb. 23.— The National American Council (we suppose "the Southern members of the Convention" is what is meant—Editors) has passed a resolution calling a new Convention in August in case the present Convention nonunates a candidate Affiliated with the Black Republicans.

The Convention last night admitted the Pennaylvania deligates who ignore the 12th section, which caused a wild excitement among the Southerners, a large majority of whom left. A split is anticipated to-day. PROCEEDINGS OF THE AMERICAN CON-VENTION.

To-day is the Chinese New Year, and, therefore, last evening was their New Year's Eve, an occasion which is celebrated in some way or other by almost every nation which has emerged from barbarism. Sacramental street, between Kearny and Dupont, where the Chinese most do congregate, was particularly enlivened last evening to a late hour by burning ganpowder in the shape of fire crackers. The street presented the appearance of a surface and acciding. Along the whole like of the state Celestial females stalked along the balconies with which most of the houses are provided, dancing, jumping and shouting in great glee as each successive pack of Christian fre missiles burst upon the sit, rendering the twillight indexes and the passage way most profoundly smoky. Most of the horses attached to drays, wagons and harks which pussed near to the scene of demonstration look fright, ad mostles which we would have been compelled to chronicle this morning but for the strong arms and well-managed reins of the drivers. The firing was continued up to a late hour last evening.
