SENIOR CAPTAIN
JOHN P. BOYLE

Birthday Anniversary of the Popular Police Commander.

The Bee heartily joins the legions of friends of the veteran and universally esteemed police commander, Senior Captain John P. Boyle in congratulating him on his having attained in robust health, and with the regard of the whole community, the sixty-fourth anniversary of his birth.

Thirty-two years ago he became connected with the police force of New Orleans, having been appointed corporal June 1, 1884. His promotion was rapid and deserved, due to his efficiency, bravery, splendid conduct, integrity and unfailing courtesy.

Here is the record of his advancement: Sergeant, November 25, 1891; Captain October 1, 1895; senior captain, September 13, 1902.

He was born in Vicksburg, Miss., August 11, 1852; educated in the public schools of New Orleans and St. Joseph's parochial school; was engaged in various commercial pursuits until 1876, when he was appointed superintendent of the Third Ward and served two years.

Captain Boyle married, in September 1877, Miss Laura Anyear and of their union one child, Lulu Boyle was born. She became the wife of A. J. Fallo, city salesman for the Merchants' Coffee Company. Their only child, Sybil Boyle Fallo, now in her eleventh year, is a bright, lovable girl, of whom "Grandpa" Boyle is extremely fond.

Captain Boyle and the late Rev. Thomas Delaney organized the Knights of Columbus in New Orleans. He is a charter member of the Police Mutual Benevolent Association of which he has been president for the past seven years.

HAPPENINGS 69 YEARS AGO.

(By Count de G. —)

Eng. Section Aug 10.

Mr. Winthrop—This gentleman, who two years ago was the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and is now perhaps, the leader of the whig party in Congress, it was supposed would endorse the course of Mr. Webster. He is the same gentleman for whom our representative, Mr. Conrad, voted for speaker. It is fortunate, indeed, that he was not placed in that high position, for he has, in a late speech, declared that he will not vote to organize any new State unless slavery be distinctly and forever prohibited by act of Congress.

The Overflow—We find the following in the Vicksburg Sentinel, dated Madison Parish, La., May 10—"The water here is still on us and we have no prospect of a fall. Some of the old settlers say that the water is higher here than it was in 1814. We have had tremendous rains which have greatly assisted in overflowing every one. It would be impossible for me to give you anything like the correct estimate of horses, hogs, cattle and stock of every description that have perished from the overflow. It is almost sickening to travel down the bayous now, on account of the stench from the dead carcasses lying in and on the banks of the bayous. Such distress has not been seen before since 1828. This parish is bound to be deserted in a few years unless the levees are kept up; scarcely any one has planted corn or cotton to much extent. Some, however, have planted from ten to twenty acres where they would have planted two hundred if it had not been for the overflow. The small crops that have been planted have scarce come up at all and the weather, particularly at night, is so cold and the earth so excessively wet that neither corn nor cotton will grow. Corn looks very badly where it will grow. Corn looks very badly where it is standing at all and cotton has been and is dying very much. I never saw so gloomy prospects for the planters. The constant cry is, "have you heard from the river?" We are altogether at the mercy of the water. I have been in Tensas, Concordia, Catahoula and Morehouse parishes, and have never witnessed such destruction of property and discontent among the people at any time. Lower down on the Mississippi river, and on the Black and Ouachita rivers, where there have been large plantations are entirely deserted, and the overflow is much worse than in this parish."

The Cincinnati Dispatch of the 18th says—"Hanks has nearly completed the chimes for the St. Patricks Cathedral at New Orleans. Without any view to disengagement, we must say that the bells are better toned than any we have heard. The casting is beautifully accurate, every fibre of the figures being distinct."

LOUISIANA DETERMINED

TO ERADICATE TICK

New Law Places Work Under State Board—Additional Precautions Taken to Prevent Reinfestation of Clean Areas.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 3.—The permanent eradication of the cattle tick in Louisiana, now seems assured as a result of the passage by the State Legislature of the State-wide tick eradication law. After April 1, 1918, tick eradication will be under the direction of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, and the law provides that such parishes as may be designated by that board will be required to make adequate provision for the construction of dipping vats and the dipping of cattle for ticks, and to continue such dipping until the ticks are entirely eliminated.

While the law will not be enforced until April 1, 1918, the Federal authorities urge the wisdom of making provision now in the different parishes for the construction of vats and for the necessary chemicals for the baths.

As an indication that the people of Louisiana are not inclined to wait until 1918 before taking up tick eradication, Federal agents state that active work is now being conducted in nine parishes, with the result that during the month of June, Parish, State and Federal employees supervised 243,908 dippings of cattle to rid them of ticks. The Federal authorities believe that a large number of square miles will be added to the tick-free areas in Louisiana by the end of this year.

As an additional safeguard against the spread of the tick, the State Legislature has also passed a law prohibiting the movement of cattle from any quarantined area into the tick-free section of Louisiana or into any part of the State where systematic tick eradication work is being conducted, unless the animals have been dipped twice in the standard solution, from 5 to 12 days apart. This dipping must be done under the supervision of a Federal or State inspector, who will furnish a certificate of dipping. The cattle must not be exposed to tick infestation after the second dipping. Where cattle are intended for immediate slaughter, these restrictions do not apply, but the slaughtering centers must be provided with facilities for handling cattle satisfactorily to the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.

Federal Court Judgments.

The bill introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressman H. Garland Dupre of the Second Congressional District repealing the law which gave the judgments of Federal Courts, sitting in Louisiana, a lien on real estate without being recorded in the Mortgage Office as State Court judgments must be, has passed the House and is now in the Senate of the United States and at the request of Mr. Dupre, Mr. W. O. Hart of the Louisiana Bar Association has obtained endorsement of the bill from the president of the Notary's Association of New Orleans and from the Louisiana Bar Association and has enlisted Senator Ransdell and Senator Brouard in support of the bill and it is hoped that it soon may become a law thus saving delay, expense and annoyance to property holders.

In the meantime, the bill prepared by Mr. Hart at the suggestion of Mr. Dupre and introduced in the last session of the General Assembly of Louisiana by Mr. John C. Davey, giving Federal Court judgments when recorded in the mortgage books the same rights as State judgments has become a law by the signature of Governor Pleasant and copy thereof has been sent to Mr. Dupre.
