AT AUCTION.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

LEECHES.

NEW-ORLEANS BEE

SPECIAL DAILY EDITION.

BY BULLETT, MOORE & CO.

OFFICE, CORNER OF CAMP AND COMMON STREETS.

HENRY JOHNSON.

NEW-ORLEANS

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 26, 1841

THE Pamphlet containing that Bank Bill, as it passed both Houses of Congress, with the yea and nay, on the bill, and the reasons, which the president of the United States, has communicated to the Senate, is completed, and copies may be had at the Clerk's Library Desk. Those desirous to secure a copy for future reference, and should be preserved by every citizen interested in the progress of political events, [illegible]

IN SUMMARY, by the police of the 1st municipality, for having stolen $30 in Alabama bank notes, from J. N. Bebodeaux, which had been deposited beneath the mattress of the latter. He was held to bail for his examination.

REPORT of the Orleans Theatre.—During the 28 hours ending yesterday at noon, eighteen bodies of which 9 are of yellow fever.

REPORT of the Charity Hospital.—During the 24 hours ending yesterday evening, there were 13 adults and 1 child admitted, of which 4 were of yellow fever; 5 deaths occurred from the same disease, and 1 discharge.

IT The steamer Alaska left Liverpool on the 6th inst. We shall probably receive intelligence by her to-morrow, or on Saturday.

G. Little has so far consented to leave my light on the murder of Miss Rhoades, though the affair is still undergoing active investigation. The course of justice are said to be in pursuit of an individual suspected as having participated in the atrocious deed.

The Whig Convention at Baltimore, on the 4th inst., was largely attended. Mr. Clay was present, and was received with great enthusiasm. The Convention was addressed by Mr. Clay, Mr. Webster, Mr. Crittenden, Mr. Preston, Mr. Berrien, Mr. Graham, Mr. Bell, Mr. Ewing, Mr. Granger, Mr. Morehead, Mr. Stanly, Mr. Botts, Mr. Wickliffe, Mr. Underwood, Mr. Sergeant, Mr. Rives, Mr. Barnard, Mr. Meredith, Mr. Wm. B. Preston, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Pearce, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Mangum, Mr. Archer, Mr. Crittenden, Mr. Morehead