TRIUMPHANT ENTRY OF GEN. TAYLOR IN THE CITY—Yesterday was a glorious and ever nemorable day. Every sures of the Crescent City was crowded with spectators, awaiting the landing of the dusinguished Gussr of New Orleans. At half pass ten o'clock, the booming of cannon at the U.S. Barracks abnounced that the Old Hero was leaving on board the Mary Kingsland with the Mayor, Recorders and Committee who find been down to accompany him to the City. The meanure passed the City, amid the shoats and hussas of the people, who inced the two shorts of the river, and, excorted

Dinner To General Taylor. About two hundred and fifty g-ntlemen por link last evening, in the dining room of the St Charles, a splendid repast offered by the Corporation of New Orleans to the City's Guest-General Zachary Taylor. While the guests were assembling, and during the dinner, this the Mayor presided, having old Rouss and souri, to the lerry boais, went up to Lesbyelle and then came down and moored at the First Municipality Ferry Landing. Gen. Taylor landed and passing under the triumshal arch, erected on the Place d'Armes, was led to the St. Losie Cathedral, when Bishop Blanc addressed him in an appropriate manner. The General was so overpowered by his emotions, that he could sourcely answer. The Church was crowded to suffoositou. The To Deuss chunited by the whole Catholic Clergy being lover, Taylor sallied out, and mounted his old white obager, survounded by a brilliant staff of his own officers and those of the Legion. Our citizen-soldiers were out in the full gtory, and nomp of war; the firemen brought of the rear of the procession, and all our different accieties, traceiter with the Veterans of 1814-15, were there congregated. After passing dewn Condesarert, and up Royal to the and Municipality, the General halted in the St. Charles Hotel, where lodgings have been presented for him, and winneard the defid of the procession. Buquets were showered upon him, along his way, by the Ladies who lived in the beloosies. In the evening, Gen. Taylor visited the different Theatres, when he was received by the sudince which thronged them, with bond and repeated cheers, and then repaired to the St. Charles to rest from the futigue of the day. The Hotel was brilliantly illuminated and remained so till late in the night. Fire works were exhibited in the evening from the Public Squares.
