ANSWERING TO A NEED GAP

The visionary of the company, Commander Babar Ali, PSC BN (Retd.) came in touch with different merchants in his three decades in active service. And he felt the need of a mediator who could serve the merchants with international standard service and professionalism. The merchants were experiencing delay in delivery of poor quality products, and that too in a steep price. As a result, after his retirement, Mr. Ali devoted his interest and expertise in becoming a successful defense contractor with Karotowa Enterprise.

Starting off with catering of spare parts to the Bangladesh Coast Guard in 2005, Karotowa has now moved on to supplying full units to its customers through creating a bond between the manufacturers and buyers based on trust and relationship.
