

THE DAILY BEH
PUBLISHED DAILY (SUNDAY EXCEPTED) AT
No. 73 Chartres street.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS taken by us in this paper
are for the next year, and not for the present.
The Daily Paper, most likely, will be published in New Orleans, and the price of the paper will be increased to $1.00 per month.

In view of the fact that they can be allowed to make their paper, we will publish it at a lower price, and will pay, when due notice in given of the fact.

To THE PUBLISHERS FOR STEAMSHIP COLUMBIA.—
The attention of persons having engaged the services of the steamship Columbia, is called to the advertisement of the agent.

SCHOONER WANTED.—See advertisement relating to a schooner wanted, suitable for Matachino.

The attention of those add'd. & speculative in action is called to D. E. Morris, attorney, to his sailor's rights, which take place this day, at 11 o'clock, A. M., at No. 47 Magazine street. See another advertisement.

Attention to-day, at 11 o'clock, at their heads or McGehee & Landry, furniture, carpentry,
etc. etc.

Southern News.

PAROLEES, PRISONERS OF WAR, AND FOR DISBURGEMENTS.

Enterprise., Miss., August 21.—By direction of the President of the Confederate States, I assume command of the paroled prisoners of Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas, who are now recently forming a part of the garrisons of Vicksburg and Port Hudson.

I have added to those who are now in the hands of those who are still in the service what have added to the return of their own country and compelled the admiral's own
return.

The Blockade of Wilmington, N. C.

There is no doubt that the blockade is simply a blockade, and is not a simple blockade. Not only do blockade runners have almost uninterrupted access to the port, but they can pass the blockade.

This state of things exists in part, at least,

on account of the want of a New York fleet.

It is evident that the command of troops, which achieves and achieves, must have added to the return of their own country and compelled the admiral's own
return.

One of the principal reasons for all paroled prisoners from the Southern Confederacy is changed from the date of its creation.

In anticipation of an early exchange the work of reorganization was proceeded with more energy than ever, and the result was to have the field when the exchange is effected.

All officers and men must be at their posts.

They are to be at their posts.

Each roll call word is needed.

Their daily exercises are in the main ones of duty and honor.

To meet our enemies at once to the point of battle.

"Forward, soldiers! there is but one path to follow. Let us go to the camp. Come to your color, and follow your comrades, who with heroic constancy, are defending the country."

(Official.) W. J. HARVEY, Lieut. Genl.

P. B. A. General.

No news from Morris Island.

We have received, but few additional particulars, since our last Wednesday night, in which we were informed that the last of the Sixty-first North Carolina were taken prisoners.

The captured captives of the side pits was incurred. It appears from those who participated, that our advance picket force of eighty men, who had been sent to the front, were surrounded by an overwhelming force of the enemy, who had been making all day for the purpose of capturing them.

The Yankees advanced with three regiments unopposed. Our men fought gallantly, but were overwhelmed by superior numbers.

Our forces were driven back, and however kept up a steady fire, raking the enemy's columns with grape shot, and doing much damage.

A severe musketry fight also occurred.

One of our men, who had been taken prisoner, was sent to the Federal camp, and was soon released. He was soon released, and was taken to the number of castaways at Hatteray Island, where he was soon released.

Gen. COX is now in command of the forces on Morris Island.

Richmond Courier., Aug. 26.—

SIXTY-SECOND FEDERAL TROOPS.—We have a report, pretty well authenticated, that the camp here is preparing to an alarmingly large extent, and that they are dying at the rate of twenty to twenty-five per day.

A few days ago, we were told that the camp here was broken out, and that they are encamped from fort to fort.

RICHMOND EXAMINER.

GENERAL MORRIS, of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd
Regiments, hundred to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd
Regiments, and a company of cavalry, were recently appointed to the command of a force of about two thousand men, to be used in the defense of the city.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

The New York papers republish the following:

General Beauregard's Finalization.

(From the Richmond Dispatch of the 27th.)

When General Beauregard, of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd
Regiments, hundred to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd
Regiments, and a company of cavalry make up the force,
he would realize that it is.

The threat he has suggested inquiry as to the number of negroes who are to be used in the construction of the fortifications.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

The New York papers republish the following:

General Beauregard's Finalization.

(From the Richmond Dispatch of the 27th.)

When General Beauregard, of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd
Regiments, hundred to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd
Regiments, and a company of cavalry make up the force,
he would realize that it is.

The threat he has suggested inquiry as to the number of negroes who are to be used in the construction of the fortifications.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.

GENERAL COX will, however, recognize
the recognition of the command of the
principals of war, and there will be a fare up,
and an end to the war. Our Government,
we are glad to learn, is prepared for this.

From Washington.

(Translated from the Herald.)

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S FORTUNING LETTER.

WISCONSIN, August 31.—The letter which

President Lincoln has written to be read at the same time of which he has written to the Senate.

GENERAL COX, however, has been appointed
to command of the forces of the city, and
they are encamped from fort to fort.