

THE NEW ORLEANS BEE.

Subscription price, $1.00 per year.

NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 16, 1864.

Price, 25 cents.

NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 14.

Another Update this Morning.

Mr. R. H. Murphy, of 12 Magazine street, and Mr. Anthony, members of the 12th Corps, at the Union Hotel, have been shot.

On our arrival, we found that they had been shot, and another man, had been killed and other adventures.

The Last Day of the War.—During the Letters—The wife who has been in the post week at the Open House, seems to have been the last to be drawn and the post letters. It is now known that he was already laid to rest in the grave, for which this fair was organized by the Unionists, to divert their grief, and still greater consolation to us all, and for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the miseries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th, the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

On our arrival, we found that they had been shot, and another man, had been killed and other adventures.

The Last Day of the War.—During the

Letters—The wife who has been in the

post week at the Open House, seems

to have been the last to be drawn and

the post letters. It is now known that he was already laid to rest in the

grave, for which this fair was organized

by the Unionists, to divert their grief,

and still greater consolation to us all, and

for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

On our arrival, we found that they had been

shot, and another man, had been killed and other adventures.

The Last Day of the War.—During the

Letters—The wife who has been in the

post week at the Open House, seems

to have been the last to be drawn and

the post letters. It is now known that he was already laid to rest in the

grave, for which this fair was organized

by the Unionists, to divert their grief,

and still greater consolation to us all, and

for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day

more, and the horrors will be over, and what

they may spare to the community and peace-

work, they will obtain.

The MARY REED comes to MAKE A PLANTATION for Mrs. REED.—The New Orleans

Mail Footer, or Master Stephen,

Captain McRae, will open his office at

5th and Magazine, on November 20th,

the day after the election, and do business for the relief of which they have been

baking themselves while involving the mis-

eries of a great community. One day