The market on Saturday was perfectly stagnated.—
There was a decline of 1 to 14 and even more percent, in every kind of smoke. Money is very, very scarce. The spring business is in the full title of operation, and cosh wanted more than ever.

The sellers and buyers were as three to one, the ferminantic The market she had not at the way of buying, and nearly all cash sales, and on short time. The bast notes in the market are taken at one and one and a half per cent, per month—Many who and cipate a rise in a few days, hold on, er rather ask so much that none will buy.

Nothing has been done in the way of real estate.—The sale advertised by Franklin & Jenkins of the Georgia Timber Lands' was adjourned, and will probable not take place. A company of capitalists have intentions of purchasing it, and sending settlers to clear and people it. The sale of the Schermarborn Furm' which takes place next week, has excited the attention of capitalists and speculators, and affords a first rate chance for a good investment.
