

TERMS OF THE BEES SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Paper, one year in advance, $12. Country Paper, semi-weekly, one year in advance, $15. No subscription taken for less than a year. In advance, $12. No subscription taken for less than a year. In advance, $12. No subscription taken for less than a year. In advance, $12.

NEW ORLEANS BEES. J. MAGNE & WESSE, PROPRIETORS. NO. 8 CHARTERS STREET. Official Journal of the State, AND COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY. WHIG CANDIDATES. FOR GOVERNOR. WILLIAM DEBAYS, FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. EDWARD SPARROW.

THE ELECTIONS. We extract from a letter of the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot of the 19th instant the following: In regard to the statements of the members of the government we have nothing, and do not find any confirmation of the remarks of the correspondent in the Herald organ.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS. The military movements of the Louisiana Militia, since the 1st of January last, have been as follows: The 1st Regiment of Louisiana Militia, commanded by Major General John B. Armes, has been ordered to the city of New Orleans, and will be there on the 21st inst.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less.

COMMISSION HOUSE. TO THE STOCK AND WESTERN MERCHANTS. The Commission House, established by the State of Louisiana, for the purpose of regulating the trade in slaves, is now open for business. It is situated in the city of New Orleans, at the corner of the Second and Canal streets.

There is a paper in St. Louis, called the Missouri Democrat, which is published weekly. It is a very interesting and valuable paper, and is well worth reading. It is published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans.

PERILOUS ADVENTURE. A man named John Smith, of the city of New Orleans, has been arrested by the police, on the charge of having committed a very dangerous and daring exploit. It is said that he had been seen in the company of several other persons, who were also arrested, and that they had been engaged in some kind of a conspiracy.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less.

Dr. Stephen H. Barthelemy. Dr. Barthelemy has been appointed to the office of Surgeon General of the Louisiana Militia. He is a very experienced and able physician, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office. He was born in the city of New Orleans, and has spent most of his life in that city.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less.

Dr. Stephen H. Barthelemy. Dr. Barthelemy has been appointed to the office of Surgeon General of the Louisiana Militia. He is a very experienced and able physician, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office. He was born in the city of New Orleans, and has spent most of his life in that city.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less.

Dr. Stephen H. Barthelemy. Dr. Barthelemy has been appointed to the office of Surgeon General of the Louisiana Militia. He is a very experienced and able physician, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office. He was born in the city of New Orleans, and has spent most of his life in that city.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less.

Dr. Stephen H. Barthelemy. Dr. Barthelemy has been appointed to the office of Surgeon General of the Louisiana Militia. He is a very experienced and able physician, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office. He was born in the city of New Orleans, and has spent most of his life in that city.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEES. The new Orleans Bees, published by J. M. Magne & Wesse, at No. 8 Charters Street, New Orleans, is a very interesting and valuable paper. It is published weekly, and contains a great deal of interesting and useful information. It is well worth reading, and is a very valuable addition to any library.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE. To General John B. Armes, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana. Sir: In pursuance of a resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 15th inst., you are directed to report to the House of Representatives the names of the officers of the Louisiana Militia, who have been appointed since the 1st of January last.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less.

SALES AT AUCTION. WHEATLAND AUCTION. On Thursday, August 21st, 1845, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following property will be sold at public auction, to wit: A certain lot of land, situated in the parish of St. Charles, Louisiana, containing about 100 acres, more or less. This block contains numerous small advertisements for various goods and services, including clothing, furniture, and real estate.