To the Senate:

Pleasant Harris, of Opelousas, having been convicted of larceny in the First District Court of New Orleans, and sentenced to one year of imprisonment in the common jail of said parish; I will, if the Senate concurs, for the reasons assigned in the accompanying recommendation for mercy, and for the additional reasons that the prisoner is represented to me to be in bad health, and having been during a long residence in the parish of Opelousas known for a good character, as the Senators from there will, I presume, testify, grant a pardon to said Harris for the unexpired term of his sentence.

I respectfully beg leave to withdraw the name of C. A. Tallarac, nominated by me as a Notary Public in the place of J. M. Moreau, whose term of office expires on the 3d of May, 1852, and nominate him as an additional Notary Public for the city and parish of New Orleans.

[No. 55.]
EXECUTIVE OFFICE.
BATON ROUGE, March 15, 1850.

To the Senate:

Whereas, at an adjourned session of the 12th District Court, holden for the parish on the 2d Monday in November, 1849, Jeremiah Ball was convicted of having used incendiary language of a tendency to create insubordination in a certain slave named Ned, the property of Griffin Johns, and thereupon was sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the penitentiary; and whereas, the said Jeremiah Ball has been recommended for a pardon by nearly two hundred respectable citizens of said parish, who assert solemnly their belief in his innocence, and that his conviction was wrongful and unjust, as will appear by reference to their petition herewith transmitted; and whereas, the representative from said parish, and the Senator from the District including it, have orally concurred in said recommendation: Now, therefore, if the Senate consent, I will grant a full pardon to said Jeremiah Ball.

Signed, JOSEPH WALKER.

(No. 56.)
EXECUTIVE OFFICE.
BATON ROUGE, March 15, 1850.

To the Senate:

I submit for your advice and consent the case of François Girod, who was convicted in the First District Court of New Orleans, of an assault and battery on an individual by the name of Auguste Broyer, for having used language derogatory to the character and reputation of the wife of the prosecutor, and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the common jail of the parish, and to pay a fine of one hundred dollars. Girod has been represented to me as a poor man, and unable to pay the fine, and that his family is really in danger of suffering for the want of the common necessaries of life, for the want of his exertions and labor, and do a good and useful citizen in his ordinary intercourse in society. Some two months since Gen. Lewis, banded me, whilst in New Orleans, papers connected with this case; they have lost or mislaid; I have endeavored to procure others, but have, up to this moment, not had success; I regret having omitted the whole papers of his imprisonment, and the Legislature being in session, I will, if the Senate consents, extend him from the payment of the fine.

Signed. JOSEPH WALKER.

I refer the Senate to Senator Ricker for information in the case.

On motion of Mr. Hereford, the rules were suspended, and the Senate proceeded to act on the Governor's recommendation to pardon Seaborn alias Calvin Moore.

Voted in favor of said nominations—23 yeas. No nays.
