VOL. XVII. NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 19, 1861. NO. 50.

BY TELEGRAPH.

TRANSMITTED TO THE NEW ORLEANS PRESS.

From Memphis.

Memphis, February 18.—The latest dispatches from Montgomery, to-day, say that the Committee on Finance will report a bill to-morrow authorizing the issue of $15,000,000 in Treasury notes, bearing interest at 6 per cent. per annum, and payable in two years. The Committee has failed to agree upon the question of the issue of bonds.

The Provisional Congress has passed a bill to raise a force of 10,000 men, to be employed in the defence of the Mississippi River.

From Charleston.

Charleston, February 17.—A letter from Pickens, dated Friday, 15th, says: The company of Fort Sumter, with the exception of Major Anderson, Lieutenant Snyder and Dr. Crawford, have left the fort. Major Anderson has given a written parole of honor not to serve against the Confederate States until regularly exchanged. Lieutenant Snyder has given a similar parole. Dr. Crawford has declined to give a parole, and will remain a prisoner.

We have been informed that the Federal troops will be allowed to take with them all the arms they can carry, and all the public property they can remove. The Federal troops will be allowed to march out with the honors of war, and will be conveyed to their vessels with their arms and baggage. The Federal troops will be allowed to take with them all the arms they can carry, and all the public property they can remove. The Federal troops will be allowed to march out with the honors of war, and will be conveyed to their vessels with their arms and baggage.

From Memphis.

Memphis, February 18.—Despatches from Montgomery, to-day, say that the Committee on Finance will report a bill to-morrow authorizing the issue of $15,000,000 in Treasury notes, bearing interest at 6 per cent. per annum, and payable in two years. The Committee has failed to agree upon the question of the issue of bonds.

The Provisional Congress has passed a bill to raise a force of 10,000 men, to be employed in the defence of the Mississippi River.

Address of the Mississippi Delegation.

From the articles under this head in the Mobile and Montgomery papers we make the following extracts:

Mobile, February 16.—The Mississippi delegation in the Provisional Congress have issued the following address to the people of Mississippi:

Fellow-citizens: The Convention of the people of Mississippi, in the act of withdrawing the State from the Federal Union, declared that the people of Mississippi were willing to unite with the people of the slaveholding States in forming a new Confederacy, upon the principles of the Constitution of the United States, as then adopted, with such amendments as might be deemed necessary. We were appointed delegates to represent Mississippi in the Congress of the Confederate States, and were instructed to use our best efforts to secure the adoption of the principles of the Constitution of the United States, as then adopted, with such amendments as might be deemed necessary. We were appointed delegates to represent Mississippi in the Congress of the Confederate States, and were instructed to use our best efforts to secure the adoption of the principles of the Constitution of the United States, as then adopted, with such amendments as might be deemed necessary.

From Memphis.

Memphis, February 18.—Despatches from Montgomery, to-day, say that the Committee on Finance will report a bill to-morrow authorizing the issue of $15,000,000 in Treasury notes, bearing interest at 6 per cent. per annum, and payable in two years. The Committee has failed to agree upon the question of the issue of bonds.

The Provisional Congress has passed a bill to raise a force of 10,000 men, to be employed in the defence of the Mississippi River.

From Charleston.

Charleston, February 17.—A letter from Pickens, dated Friday, 15th, says: The company of Fort Sumter, with the exception of Major Anderson, Lieutenant Snyder and Dr. Crawford, have left the fort. Major Anderson has given a written parole of honor not to serve against the Confederate States until regularly exchanged. Lieutenant Snyder has given a similar parole. Dr. Crawford has declined to give a parole, and will remain a prisoner.

We have been informed that the Federal troops will be allowed to take with them all the arms they can carry, and all the public property they can remove. The Federal troops will be allowed to march out with the honors of war, and will be conveyed to their vessels with their arms and baggage. The Federal troops will be allowed to take with them all the arms they can carry, and all the public property they can remove. The Federal troops will be allowed to march out with the honors of war, and will be conveyed to their vessels with their arms and baggage.

Address of the Mississippi Delegation.

From the articles under this head in the Mobile and Montgomery papers we make the following extracts:

Mobile, February 16.—The Mississippi delegation in the Provisional Congress have issued the following address to the people of Mississippi:

Fellow-citizens: The Convention of the people of Mississippi, in the act of withdrawing the State from the Federal Union, declared that the people of Mississippi were willing to unite with the people of the slaveholding States in forming a new Confederacy, upon the principles of the Constitution of the United States, as then adopted, with such amendments as might be deemed necessary. We were appointed delegates to represent Mississippi in the Congress of the Confederate States, and were instructed to use our best efforts to secure the adoption of the principles of the Constitution of the United States, as then adopted, with such amendments as might be deemed necessary. We were appointed delegates to represent Mississippi in the Congress of the Confederate States, and were instructed to use our best efforts to secure the adoption of the principles of the Constitution of the United States, as then adopted, with such amendments as might be deemed necessary.