A VENDRE—24 mille cigares de 1 Havane en caisses, demi caisses, quarts et dixièmes, qualité supérieure. Sirop de calabasses.
Une quantité de boîtes de gouyaves et gde.
40 bouteilles d'eau de fleurs d'orangers. BOLANA y ARIZA.
Encanquage des rues St. Pierre et Bourbon. 18 août.

AVIS—Dans la matinée du Samedi 26 Juillet dernier, est disparue de chez le soussigné, une négresse nommée A. O'NEIL, âgée d'environ 34 ans, taille d'environ cinq pieds, cheveux noirs, nez gros, les yeux à fleur de tête, une dent de devant cassée ou arrachée; un vicieux cicatrice sur le cou, large d'environ quatre doigts; croûte de l'habitation de Mr. Charles Bulet, anciennement habitant de la paroisse de l'Assomption.
Cette négresse vers neuf heures du matin était au bord du fleuve à nettoyer un poisson, et c'est à peu près à 10 heures et demie que son absence a été remarquée. Un homme dans une pirogue, connu sous le nom de Chabot, a été aperçu dans le voisinage, passer dans cet intervalle.
On suppose d'après l'événement, que cette négresse s'est échappée de chez son maître, et qu'elle est allée chercher refuge dans la paroisse de St. Pierre, No. 47, maison de M. V. Couvo, soit en l'adressant au soussigné, sur son habitation près le bayou Plaqueminc.
Yverville, le 8 Août 1828.
18 août—3,1ps CUVILLIER.

AVIS—Le soussigné ayant fixé sa résidence à dans la paroisse d'Yverville, à 2 ou 3 milles au-dessous du Bayou Plaqueminc, et du même bord, y continue l'exercice de sa profession, et suivra régulièrement les cours de district dans les paroisses Est et Ouest de Baton-Rouge, Pointe Coupée, St. Jacques, Ascension et autres de l'intérieur de Lafourche. En se chargeant des affaires qui lui seront confiées, le soussigné stipulera toujours, lorsque ses clients en manifesteront le désir, de conduire lui-même sans augmentation d'honoraires, ces affaires jusqu'en appel inclusivement, s'il est exigé. —Près de vingt ans de pratique, tant à la Nlle-Orléans que dans les paroisses susdites, semblent dispenser le soussigné de la nécessité de dire que son zèle, ses soins et son activité ne laisseront jamais rien à désirer à ses clients pour le succès des causes qui lui seront confiées.
Le soussigné a confié à son confrère, Mr. P. Soulé, avocat résident à la Nlle-Orléans, et associé avec Mr. Louis Moreau Lislet, la suite, (selon la loi qu'il lui a remise) des affaires de son cabinet non encore terminées; les talents de Mr. Soulé, les grandes lumières de Mr. Moreau Lislet, son associé, sont les meilleurs garants qu'on puisse désirer que ces affaires soient conduites à leur fin d'une manière convenable, indépendamment de ce que le soussigné, toutes les fois que des affaires en appel le conduiront en ville, joindra ses soins à ceux de ses confrères.
Toutes personnes de la Nlle-Orléans, ayant des communications à faire au soussigné, peuvent les lui faire parvenir avec célérité en les donnant à son fils Adolphe Cuvillier, commis au greffe de la Cour Suprême, demeurant rue St. Pierre, no. 47, vis-à-vis de la prison de l'Etat.

ADAMS SELECTORS.
JAMES VILLERE, of St. Bernard, ANDRE LE BLAV, of Assumption, C. BUNNELL, of East Baton Rouge, N. DECLAUNET, of St. Martin, B. MORRIS, of Natchitoches.

It appears by a letter received in Norfolk, that a man has been apprehended in Manzanilla, Cuba, who proved to be the pilot of the pirate which murdered the crew of the schooner Charles, of Philadelphia. It is stated that he had made a confession of the whole transaction.

COMMERCIAL.
Baltimore, July 18, 1828.
From Aux Cayes and Gonaves.
Capt. Parson, of the schooner John Q. Adams, at this port, informs that he sailed from Aux Cayes on the 28th June for home, but having pitched away the head of his foremast was compelled to put into Gonaves to repair, from whence he again sailed on the 6th inst.

The crops of coffee all over the island had fallen short, and at the time of his sailing none could be procured, and nearly all was in. Three eastern vessels had been obliged, after selling their cargoes at the former place, to leave in ballast. The great rains had caused the destruction. The last purchases were made at 11 to 14 cents per lb. on board. Flour, at either of the above named places, would command $16 per barrel, and Susquehanna herrings $8.

Two manufactories for bagging, negro cloth and sheeting, are about to be established in the neighborhood of Millidgeville, Georgia. A lot of land, it is also stated, was purchased at the late sale of the reserve at Indian Springs, for a mercantile house in Savannah, for the same purpose.

Savannah July 5.—Some speculation has been going on in Bagging. We have heard of purchases at 22¢, and for a lot of 400 pieces, 22 was refused.

On the subject of the late changes in the British Ministry, the Baltimore Gazette says:

The members who now remain in the administration are of the tory politics, though none of them are the most intolerant of that party, as the nation will no longer endure politicians of that school.

The only men who continue in the administration, of any name or influence, are Lord Wellington and Mr. Peel. Mr. Herries and Mr. Goulburn, although highly respectable and talented, possess little or no influence beyond the sphere of their family connexions. The first named, from the great services he has rendered in a military capacity, and his popularity with the army, must always be a man of much importance.

Mr. Peel has no doubt been the most influential and active member of Lord W's administration, and he has been so in part from his subserviency to the views of the less liberal and aristocratic portion of the nation, to which the administration leaned. Mr. Huskisson is, however infinitely his superior as a statesman, and was unquestionably looked up to by the nation at large, as the strongest man in the administration. In point of education Mr. P. has probably some advantages over Mr. H. and as a general debater in the house of Commons, is more able to take the lead; but Mr. Huskisson with higher qualities of mind and greater experience in public affairs, and above all, with a character for disinterestedness and integrity, exercises a moral power over the nation which Mr. P. is never likely to attain.

Mr. Peel came into public life under the influence of his father's wealth, and has been sustained and advanced by his close attachment and zeal, in behalf of the high church party—and the least enlightened and least liberal, but powerful and wealthy portion of the aristocracy. He is no doubt a man of respectable talents, much industry, and excellent character, but much of his reputation as a statesman, arose from his sitting in the same cabinet with Mr. Canning and his associates, and sharing in the praises bestowed upon measures which he in fact had very little agency in originating.—He has on the whole declined in reputation since he separated from the Canning party, previous to that Minister's death.

Earl Dudley has the reputation of great talents, but is immensely rich, and it is doubtful whether he can ever submit to the labours which are indispensable to a leading member of the Administration. He was always in habits of the closest intimacy and friendship with the late Mr. Canning, which is of itself one strong evidence of his talents and his merit.

Mr. Grant is the Son of a London merchant, has filled several important offices, succeeded Mr. Hutkinson as President of the Board of Trade, and in point of talents and character, stands somewhat on a level with Mr. Peel, and if he has not attained so high a political station, it is on account of his more liberal opinions and independent conduct.

Lord Palmerston has for many years been Minister of war, and was probably placed in that situation more by the influence of family than by his own talents.—Mr. Lamb belongs to the Whig party, but as yet has not attained any political celebrity.

There will now be a struggle between the Tory and the Whig party for the ascendancy in the new Administration. The more enlightened and the most numerous part of the nation are with the latter, but the preponderance of wealth and family rank and the strength of the Church party, will support the former, and there is some danger they may prevail.

We were struck (says the National Gazette) with the announced assembling of the ministers of the Allied powers of Corfu, as a circumstance which denotes a concerted mediation. We can understand the ostensible serenity or inaction of those powers, in relation to the Russian invasion of Turkey, only by the supposition that they deem themselves able, and have resolved, to arrest the war as soon as they think that the Turks have become sensible of their weakness. According to the latest intelligence from Constantinople, the Porte made a show of desperate resistance. The fear of our Smyrna papers would lead us to the conclusion, that the Ottoman councils generally had perceived the extent of the dangers with which they were threatened, and entertained the question of compromise.

The schooner Julia & Laura, Capt. Ailing, from St. Eustatia, arrived at New Haven on Tuesday last.—On the 5th inst. at 10 o'clock, P. M. 43 hours out of Sombrero Passage, lat. 23, 30, long. 64, was hailed in Spanish from a felucca, and ordered to heave too; this not being complied with, he discharged several muskets at us, and passed close under our stern; we being obliged to give ship, and the schooner having a press of canvas, we left him about 1½ miles astern; finding, however, he gained on us on the wind, we kept off before the wind. In this situation his latter sails were of less use to him; he continued in chase about fourteen hours; this gave us time to get two 6 pound cannonades in readiness for defence; after a shot from one of them, he hauled his wind and stood to the southward. She appeared to be about 35 to 40 tons, and full of men; have no doubt of her being a pirate from Porto Rico.

The brig Shepherdess, Wark, of New Haven, for St. Croix, touched at St. Eustatia, and reports having been boarded near Sombrero Passage, by 15 armed men, from a fore and aft schooner full of men, and detained one day; after taking a few small articles, she was permitted to proceed.

Arrest of a Charge des Affaires in Jamaica.—Senor Hurtado, the Colombian agent arrived here the other day in the packet. As soon as he put his feet on shore at Kingston, he was arrested at the suit of Mr. Edmund Miles, of London, of 3000l. Senor Francisco Infancon of this city, became his bail. The Chief Justice discharged Senor Hurtado on the following grounds:—That Senor Hurtado's object in going to the continent in search of a conveyance, evinced a laudable desire to return to his Government. The fact was sworn to by Senor Hurtado, and that although he was relieved from his office as ambassador, he was not discharged but was actually on his way to make a report of his embassy to the Government of the Republic of Colombia. (Jamaica Paper.)

It appears from an article in the Democratic Press of the 19th inst. that Major Eaton from Tennessee, Major Williams of Mississippi, Mr. Livingston of Louisiana, Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, and divers other Southern Jackson missionaries, are on duty in Philadelphia, Mr. McDuffie, Major Hamilton, and a few other Hotspurs from the South, the Press adds, are expected to relieve guard in a few days. It will be recollected that the Jackson Congress gave to Mr. Stevenson the privilege of franking the year round—this fact will enable the readers to form a pretty correct opinion as to the business of these gentlemen in Philadelphia.

Among the Havana papers received by the editors of the New-York Journal of Commerce, is a long edict, beginning with a fuller recital of Ferdinand's titles than we ever recollect to have seen before—calling him, among other things, King of Jerusalem, of Sardinia, of th. Algarves, of Gibraltar, of the Canary Islands, of the East and West Indies, of the Ocean Sea, Archduke of Austria, Duke of Burgundy, of Brabant and Milan, Count of Hapsburg, Flanders, Tyrol, &c. &c.—Not one of which provinces and countries, by the way, acknowledges his sceptre—indeed he has had much ado in keeping hold of Castile and Leon. The subject matter of the edict is to the full as wise as the preamble. It ordains, that in consequence of the uniform loyalty of the town of Puerto Principe in Cuba, which has been proof against two or three assaults, it shall henceforth, in addition to the title of ever faithful, (siempre fiel) which it enjoys in common with the whole Island of Cuba, wear the name of very noble and very loyal, (muy noble y muy leal) which the worthy people of that town will, no doubt, consider a full compensation for all hardships and miseries, past, present, and future, endured for the sake of legitimacy and King Ferdinand.

Riot.—The New-York Evening Post states that on Monday forenoon a mob of about three hundred riggers, stevedores and laborers assembled, and went along the docks, boarding some vessels, and forcing those employed in discharging or loading them to quit work, because their wages had been lowered. They attacked the Havre packet Sully, Capt. Macey, with a shower of paving stones, one of which struck Capt. Clark of the ship Don Quixotte, who had repaired on board to assist in preventing their boarding the ship and withdrawing the men from her. The ship Florida and a number of others were visited in turn, but no serious injury was done. The mob dispersed when the constables appeared; ten have been committed for trial—only one American among them.

Thomas P. Moore, a member of Congress from Kentucky, who rendered himself so notorious during the last session of Congress, by improperly using the franking privilege, in emptying the Telegraph from postage, declared in Nashville, in the summer of 1824, that Tennessee had disgraced herself by bringing out Gen. Jackson as a candidate for the Presidency, so totally unfit was he for the station. What office can a man of his moderate abilities have in expectancy.—Kentucky Reporter.

NOTICE.
THE undersigned having established his residence in the Parish of Iberville, two or three miles above Bayou Plaquemine, and on the same site, follows the practice of his profession, and will regularly attend the District and Parish Courts of East and West Baton Rouge, Pointe Coupée, St. Jacques, Ascension and other parts of Lafourche Interior. In taking charge of the causes which may be entrusted to him, the undersigned will always agree with his clients (when they will make known their wish so to do), to conduct them himself without an increase of salary, till the appeal inclusively, if the case require it. A practice of nearly twenty years, as well in New-Orleans, as in the above mentioned Parishes, seem to dispense the undersigned with the necessity of declaring that his zeal, activity, and attention to business will leave nothing to be wished for by his clients for the success of the causes which may be entrusted to him.
The undersigned has left to his fellow-members of the bar, Mr. P. Soulé, residing in New-Orleans, and partner of Mr. Louis Moreau Lislet, the unfinished business of his office, a list of which he delivered to him. The talents of Mr. Soulé, and of Mr. Moreau Lislet, his partner, are the best security to be wished for that these causes will be conducted to the best in a suitable manner. Besides, the undersigned, whenever his cases in appeal will call him to New-Orleans, will make his case to those of those gentlemen.
All persons in New-Orleans, having communications to forward to the undersigned may do it with more celerity by giving them to his son Adolphe Cuvillier, Clerk in the office of the Supreme Court, (which, reading at No. 47 St. Peter street, opposite the Parish Jail.

CUVILLIER.
Iberville, August 8, 1828.—[Aug. 18]

RUNAWAY.
FROM the undersigned's house on the 26th July last, in the morning,
A negro woman named AGNES, aged about 34 years, about 5 feet high, big lips, big nose and eyes,—has a front tooth missing, an old scar of about four inches on her neck, and is a creole of the Plantation of Mr. Ode Bolot, formerly a planter of the parish of Assumption.
The said negro was on the bank of the river, about 9 o'clock, a. m. clearing a 4th, and it was not until about half past 10 o'clock, that her absence was noticed—a man known by the name of Chabec, was seen passing by in a pirogue at that time.
The said negro having manifested several times, the preceding days, her wish to go to town, and the fruitless search made after her that, and the two following days, to ascertain whether she had fallen into the river, leaves no room to doubt but that she has seized the opportunity of the above mentioned pirogue to run away.
Any person who can give any information respecting the said negro, is requested to do so by leaving a note at No 47 St. Peter-st. at Mad. widow Ode's house, or directing it to the undersigned, at his plantation, Bayou Plaquemine. CUVILLIER.
