The following letter with the accompanying comments of the Lynchburg Virginian, will convince the most neoptical that Gen'l Hannson never was an abolitionist. The sole cridence upon which the loss faces rest their charge is the statement published in the circular of the Old Hero, which they have mutilated and garbled to suit their purposes. The subjected document affixes the stigms of infemry upon the reckless calumnies of locofocoism. It is from the pen of one of the most venerable and respectable citizen of Virginia.
