ELECTION OF JUDGES.

The election will take place on the first Monday in April, and no small excitement is manifested. There are two District Judges and two Justices of the entire parish. Some are desirous of the re-election of the present incumbents, in consideration with a desire to see the Bench occupied by a part of the Bar of this city, in conjunction with a portion of the old Judges. For the latter class of candidates have been spoken of gentlemen of excellent private character and respectable legal attainments. Their names therefore be a friendly one, and will be scattered by political animosity. Whether Judge Lea, the present incumbent, or Judge Cobb, his honorable and high-minded competitor, or both, will be the returns of the District Court, for that they have secured the respect of impartial, discriminating and not fractionary. The measure seems apparently enjoyed by either probable decide the result.

Besides the six District Courts of the city, there appears to be some what much dominant in the public mind, formula of a political ticket, and entertaining overtures from a party to run independent of the Democratic party. Democratic judgeship would be at the actual incumbents as candidates of the two have been so. It is appeal again to have consented; but no there is no evidence by the Democracy to the other hand, the American party, have party steps for regular party The various clubs assembled evening and appointed delegates election which will meet to ticket, a full ticket, a member of names in connection with judicial offices, Judge Merrick, Egleston, Lyndon and perhaps others. All except Judge Morgan, years ago to fill the va- Supreme Court, Judge Lea to the Judge Cobb to tell our readers political nominations for our municipal offices in opposition have been repeatedly re- as it is impossible to control independent is relied upon the action of party; as the when in the full flush of party bonds, and the Democratic party bonds, is futile. The con- independent press is invited to earnest hope that none and competent will be the offices of the people. It remark that on the last organized an opposition ticket, the names of candidates are and John M. Bach, transferees, &c., a lot of ground on Customhouse street, between Marais and Villere streets, together with a two story dwelling thereon, and several slaves, to which the attention of purchasers is respectfully called.

We are indebted to Dr. Palmer for tickets of admission to the lecture to be delivered before the Odd Fellows Hall on Friday, for the benefit of St. Anna's Asylum.

Dr. Dean. We invite attention to the card in our columns of Mr. Dean, who has just returned from the North, with the latest improvements for embalming the dead. Mr. Dean has also purchased Dr. Mosman's establishment, which is one of the most favorable places bordering the Lake for the city of New Orleans to visit. The process is one of marvelous simplicity and unfailing efficacy. It is free from mutilation, and does not interfere in the slightest manner with the natural appearance of the body. Mr. Dean's improvement on all previous processes, is worthy the attention of the public.

Mr. Cavanaugh has had constructed a spacious vault in Cemetery No. 2, Bienville street, which contains twelve tombs are placed in each, while awaiting transportation to their final resting place in all times visited by the friends of the deceased. Mr. Cavanaugh's address is No. 97 Marais street, between Customhouse and Bienville.

It is said that Mr. Buchanan has determined to appoint Brigham Young from the Governorship of Utah, and appoint some good Democrat in his place. Maj. Neighbors, of Texas, has been tendered the appointment, and has declined. We hope not, for he is the best man we can find to send as Governor of Utah.

Mr. Pearson, who has been appointed to the Governorship of Kansas,
