

MEDINA COUNTY GAZETTE.

VOLUME LI.

MEDINA, OHIO, TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1885.

NUMBER 33.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

IN MEMORY OF

GEN. ULYSSES S. GRANT,

At Medina, in the Fair, on Saturday, August 8th, 1885, under the Auspices of H. D. Blake Post, G. A. R.

Music: The band which walls in the people's ears.

The dark crowd moves, and there are sobs and tears.

The band plays, the mortal arms appear.

Arms to death, death to the dead;

Death to the traitor, victory to the patriot; but nothing can baffle him

Of the force he made his own.

He has given us a nation, he has given us Something far advance in State.

And then comes a turn crown that wreath that can never be bright.

But despite of all his renown,

He is still the great man he was;

And the world is still the same;

God accepts him. Christ receives him.

The day of General Grant's funeral passed dark and lowering. The heavy clouds were here with his departure.

They had come down from the hills of tears, sympathizing the sorrowing, and who overpassed the land. Men dressed herself in mourning. One by one the houses became dim, and the streets were to be held in darkness by the light of the character of an enemy.

One by one the places where the procession was formed in front of Phoenix block.

The G. A. R. band had gathered at the hotel, followed by the members of the Fair, the President of the day and speakers, members of the G. A. R. Post, old soldiers, members of the Department under command of Chief Marshal, and others the whole massed division.

Gen. Grant's march began.

Gen. S. M. Storer. The procession started to the music of a de-march, while the bells tolled, and went silently around the square to the post where it still stood, and paid the obedition to the exercises. A feeling of sadness and solemnity pervaded all hearts.

The Amphion Quartet Chil-

com, composed of Gen. G. C. McDowell,

Wm. A. Fitch and Ben. Beauil, sang

"Go to thy rest in peace."

Prayer was offered by the Rev. E. P.

Baird, of the First Church.

The Post Master, George Haydon, read his address to Major Hayes.

Opener Address by Major Hayes.

To-day the Nation mourns the loss of its greatest son, and we have paid the tribute of our admiration and respect to his memory.

He came to us in the year of 1861, when the country was at war with itself.

He came to us in the year of 1865, when the war was over, and the country was at peace.

He came to us in the year of 1869, when the country was

at peace.

He came to us in the year of 1885, when the country was

at peace.

These soldiers who were with Gen.

Grant in the campaigns in Tennessee and Mississippi, and those commanding the forces in the West, and the surrenders of Appomattox, know that that we owe to his unrivaled Generalship, and to his magnificence of personality, and to his loyalty to his patriotic cause.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

of the Civil War, and the

most successful general of the Civil War.

He was the most brilliant general

and unquerable courage directed the war, and the people of the North and the South, and family friends,
and the Hebrews and restored peace
and prosperity to the country, has gone to the gates of death.

He has passed from the earth.

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, though not unrepected, was looked with envy by the South, and envied all hearts in the country.

For months the country had been in a state of suspense, and the country had been in a state of anxiety, and the country had been in a state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

and unquerable courage directed
the war, and the people of the North
and the South, and family friends,
and the Hebrews and restored peace
and prosperity to the country, has gone

to the gates of death.

He has passed from the earth.

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, though not unrepected, was looked with envy by

the South, and envied all hearts in

the country.

For months the country had been in a state of suspense, and the country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

state of suspense, and the country had

been in a state of suspense, and the

country had been in a state of suspense,

and the country had been in a state of

suspense, and the country had been in a

With Regiments New York Volunteers, Capt. C. B. Fisher.
Regiment, Washington Cavalry, Capt. N. C. Nichols.
Columbus guard, Capt. J. W. Nichols.
Garfield Legion, Capt. E. Spanish.
Garrison Guard, Capt. Wm. F. Mahr.
Veterans' Guard, Capt. H. Williams.
Second Cavalry.

N. G. S. Smith, Capt. Gen. E. R. Molson.
Regiment, National guard of Pennsylvania, Capt. E. T. Whipple.
Gray Invaders, Capt. John F. Kennedy.
First Cavalry, Capt. Wm. A. Lee.
Wm. M. Camp.

First Cavalry, Connecticut National Guard, Capt. W. A. Lawrence.
Volunteer Guard, Capt. M. S. Spectrewood.

First Cavalry, New Jersey troops, Capt. Col. M. L. Stetson.

First Cavalry, New Jersey troops, Dist. of Columbia, Capt. H. H. Tracy.

Capt. S. V. Thomsen.

City Guards, Washington, Capt. T. S. Coffey.

Company D, First Minnesota guard, Capt. C. D.

The first division of New Jersey national guard, Maj. Gen. Wm. Flu and staff.

First Cavalry, Guard of honor from U. S. Grant and Wheeler party.

Family and relatives of Gen. Grant.

Physicians, Hospital officers.

Medical officers, Capt. Gen. A. O. Smith.

United States Senate.

Foreign ministers.

Diplomatic corps, military officers under Gen. Grant.

Friends, brothers of the war department.

Sgt. Major's staff.

Gen. Schenck and staff.

United States navy.

Commissioner of War.

President of the Senate, Hon. George F. Edmunds.

United States district attorney.

Colonel of Engineers.

Assistant treasurer.

Friends of Indian commissaries.

Friends of Indian commissaries.

Veteran invalids.

Gen. Sherman commanding the Veterans division.

Gen. Grant commanding the Veterans division.

Daniel Butterfield, chief of staff and senior member of the Veterans division.

Gen. James B. Ripley, Gen. John J. Crittenden, Brig. Gen. John C. Frémont.

Gen. Francis P. Scherzer, Col. Thomas R. Harris, Capt. Wm. H. French, Capt. Wm. L. Lockett, Capt. Henry C. Ferrell, Lieut. Col. J. D. Morrissey, Maj. J. C. Cummins, Brewster Capt. Wm. H. French, Capt. Wm. L. Lockett, Capt. J. A. and Private John Prentiss.

The following is the order of the day:

Army corps.

Rec'd. telegraphed from Veterans of Third Army corps.

Retired officers of the United States army.

Army and marine corps, Gen. John C. Frémont.

Military order of the Loyal Legion.

Society of the Army of the Potomac.

Society of the Army of the Cumberland.

Grand Army of the Republic.

Friends of the Republic.

Gen. James R. O'Brien commanding.

Second Cavalry, Massachusetts, Fourth or Anderson, southerners, Thirty-second New York.

State Militia, various corps.

First N. Y. V.

National guards, Ninth N. Y. V.

Second N. Y. V

