These ireful gentry, ere while brimful of patriotic and belingerent intentions, chaonting thundering can-ticles and shouting the war slogan, pending the de-bates on the subject, now pipe their reeds to the most dulect and delightful strains. To hear their celestial harmony now, one might well marvel at the possibility of evoking harsh discord from such well tuned instru-ments. But the metamorphosis in the key note proves

The 49th de-gree is now regarded as the same of American ex-pectations—the be-all and end-all of this long coninued controversy, because a Treaty has been signed by Mr. Polk in which that parallel of latitude con

While the Locofocos were clamoring for the whole of Oregon, the Whiga and some few of the Democrats to their eternal honor be it said, proceeded with calmness and deliberation to ascertain from a rigid scrutiny into every attainable source of evidence, what were the respective rights and titles of the contestant While Cass, Allen and Hannzoan, were "prepar-ing the hearts of the people for war," Webster an CRITTENDEN, CALHOUR and BERTON, were taking such high, equitable and just ground as to ensure the con-tinuance of peace. They, be it remembered, in their solicitude to bind Mr. Pour irrevocably to their outrines, abandoned the courtesies usually observed a speaking of the Chief Magistrate and attempted to ailly and terrify him into compliance. the spot, and present at the closing moments of the highest beings who perished from their over exertions to seage.

The stairness communicating with the boxes was a steep one, and we are of the opinion it had tallen from the weight of those who crowded upon it. At least such was our common at the moment.

One foot was interposed between the hapless crowd and exemity? and on that space we, with five or so others stood, the tierce thames playing around us, and the dienes smoke repelling all siftors to extricate. As tai back as we could see there was a sea of heads, of withing bodies and out-stretched arms. Noise there was more but fee moons except the doomed. At the extreme end in view there were lised end and resigned; persons, who, from the funeral veil of smoke which gradually enshrouded them, appeared cainily to drop into eternal sleep. By our safe was one brother striving to extricate another, but abandonment was unavoidable. One poor creature at our feet offered his entire worldly wealth for his rescue the agonizing expression of the faces before us can never be effaced from our memory.

The flames at the time were above and around us during the second of the continuous continuous through the second of the faces before in the enjoyment of a full and active life, were exposed to our view a mass of calcined bones. Up to this bour forty six bodies lave been recovered from the runner. Most of them have been recognized a greater loss of life than in the two dread conflagmations of last summer.

Sad wailing pervades the city. Scarcely a street can be traversed in which the closed shutter or the hanging crape do not betoken a sudden bereavement. Fathers, sisters, children, of both sexes indulge in the deepest famentation. We has fallen upon many for those who were thus suddenly and avoidly summoned into the presence of their Creator.

There is, says the United States Gazette, something really Washingtonian in the tone and language of the above quotation, a mild, gentle rebuke, that ought to carry with it entire correction. It is long since we have had such a long sword and such a short pen in the hand of a commanding General.

The Hon. Soloman Reed, late a Senator of the Common wealth of Massachusetts, died a few days ago.
