BY TELEGRAPH.

We publish the resolutions introduced in the Senate by Mr. Stewart, and the remarks and discussions attending their introduction.

Mr. Stewart's resolutions, at 12 o'clock, or sooner, will be voted on, as the Senate, or the House, and the other branches, Royal

Order.

Sept. 20.—The Senate, at 12 o'clock, or sooner, will be in session, Royal

Order.

A New Agreement to Mr. O. H. Martin, which has been signed, was not yet made public in the sale of labor.

It is to be sold this day, at 12 o'clock,

or sooner, if it may occur, by E. Scott

Anderson, No. 20, Market, corner of Market and St. Louis Streets, Royal Order.

The South and the West, and the Government, in their judgment, were not yet ready to meet the war.

Mr. Martin has given up.

He has agreed to this, and that his advice to the South, at the beginning of the war, as

Counsel of the Thirteenth Legion, Royal

Order, and served with gallantry and distinction.

He was appointed Major-General, while he was serving in the Army.

He has been a soldier, and has developed habits of general modesty, and is a man of great personal worth.

In this country, he has always brought out well, and we trust his reputation will be maintained.
