Pennsylvania Senator.—The legislature of Pennsylvania made another and fruitless attempt, on the 3d of April, to elect an United States senator. This proving unsuccessful the convention was on that day closed. The four parties seem religiously to athers to their candidates. Henry A. Muhleuberg, of the house of representatives being out of the question, the contest centres on Messers, McKee, Rush, Sergeant, and Dallas, the late incurabent. Thus ends th struggle for the present. There ballotings took place, as we learn from the Sentiael, with the following results.
