LAST WEEK

And perhaps the only opportunity of ever seeing a moving Panorama in this city

PANORAMA

In the large hall facing the Theatre, Camp street.—SINCLAIR'S grand perestrophic or moving Panorama of the different scenes in the life of the great NAPOLEON, commencing with the battle of Waterloo, the taking of his carriage, the coast of France, the exterior and interior of St Helena, and his funeral procession on that Island, &c; the whole comprises 12 different views—the movements of which are accompanied by a military band, and a description given of each view as it approaches. The public are most respectfully informed that this Panorama has been brought here and fitted up at a great expense in the above hall, it being the largest one that could possibly be obtained in this city; it has been exhibited two seasons in Niblo's Garden, New York—also in the principal cities in the Union with great success. Doors open each at 6 1-2 o'clock, and the curtain rises precisely at 7—open only in the evenings. A private entrance for ladies and families on Natchez street.

Admittance, 50 cents. For particulars see handbill's.

LOUISIANA LEGION.

THE Louisiana Legion will appear on the Public Square, on Thursday the 8th day of January instant, at 10 o'clock A M, precisely, completely armed and equipped, to be reviewed by the Commander in Chief, and to celebrate the Anniversary of the 8th of January, 1815.

A distribution of Cannon and Musket Cartridges will take place on the square. Commanding officers of companies are requested to pay the strictest attention to the state of their muskets and cartridge boxes.

Commanding officers of companies will give on the spot an exact statement of the number of men on the ground, and will send detachments from their own companies to their appointed for the review.

The Brigadier General depends altogether on the zeal of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and all other members of the Legion.

The officers commanding the several companies will cause the foregoing orders to be executed.

By order of Gen. J B PLAUCHE, Commanding the Legion.

PENMANSHIP.

MESSRS. DOLBEAR & BROTHERS respectfully give notice that they have returned and reopened their WRITING ACADEMY at No. 8 Chartres street, where Penmanship in all its variety is taught.

Lessons will be given through the day, and until 10 o'clock in the evening. Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residence. By this system—the Carstairian—a more rapid business style may be acquired in two weeks than usually effected in years by the old method.

Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens written by persons of various ages in this city and elsewhere.

All those who had not time to finish their lessons last season, can do so now free of charge.

They would also inform those who have applied to them for copies of the system, that the next edition will be out in the course of the winter.

In order to give transient persons who have not had an opportunity to examine for themselves—the opinion of those who have, the following report is presented. For others see Circulars.

NEW ORLEANS, 12th May, 1834.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the RAPID if not UNPARALLELED progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

JACKSON FAUBOURG.
1500 Valuable Lots in the vicinity of the City,
BY FERNANDEZ & WHITING.

WILL be sold without reserve, and to the highest bidder, at Hewlett's Exchange, on Monday the 12th of January, 1835, and the following days, 1500 lots of Ground, situate in faubourg Jackson, in the rear of the city, as per plan approved by the City Council, and exhibited at the Exchange Coffee House, to which reference is made:

These Lots are situated on the left side of the Bayou St John, and between the said Bayou and the New Orleans Canal, at a distance of not more than one mile and a half from the city. The advantages of their situation are numerous; and for gardens, milk establishments, country seats, small farms, or summer residences, it surpasses, by its local situation and propinquity to the city, any piece of land that can be offered.

These lots are generally on high land, and require no expense to be put into immediate cultivation. The land is new and the soil is very rich, and well adapted for gardening; it affords also excellent pasturage for cattle.

These lots are of greater importance to speculators and individuals, than might be thought of at first. By an ordinance of the City Council, Orleans street must be opened to the Bayou St John, and is already half finished, and it is projected to make a rail road upon the said street to the Bayou: and it is proposed to remove the bridge immediately on that street, and by another ordinance Canal street will be opened to the Metaire road; and ultimately, there is no doubt, all the streets of the city. The splendid shelled road made along the Canal, Carondelet, and the other existing communications, together with those commenced and projected, will afford easy access to the City.

The rapid increase of the faubourg Trenie, which will reach the Bayou St John in a very short time, the improvements undertaken and undertaken by the "The Company of Architects of the Eighth Ward," and in conclusion the city having extended itself considerably up and down the coast, must necessarily go, as it is rapidly going back. All these are advantages which must tend greatly to enhance the value of these lots.

Terms of Sale:—1 5th cash, and the balance at 1, 2, 3 and 4 years credit, in notes without endorsement and with mortgage. The acts of sale to be passed before Joseph Cavillier, not. pub. at the expense of the purchaser, or their own expense.

P S. All purchasers will have the privilege of cutting wood upon the on enclosed lots. dec 31
