NICARAGUA.

WITHDRAWAL OF THE COSTA RICANS.

In the correspondence furnished by the bureau of the Gremio, it is stated, on the authority of Capt. Darwin, that the Costa Rican army had evacuated Nicaragua. This movement is undoubtedly true. The Panama Star and Herald, a journal bitterly opposed to Walker, has news from Punta Arenas to the 6th inst., confirmatory of the fact. Mora, President of Costa Rica, has been compelled to withdraw from Nicaragua, though, with customary pretensions, he strives hard to convince the world that he has beaten Walker everywhere, and only retires in honorable pursuit of the malignity of the climate. An experience of the cool and deliberate manner in which Mora and his officers pervert truth, we copy the following, which the Panama paper gives and evidently tries to believe:

The Boletin Oficial of May 3d, the latest date received, contains an address from President Mora to the officers of his army, thanking them for their efficient services, and for their valor in Santa Rosa, Rivas and Virgin-ya. It says, that, having beaten the Filibusters wherever they were met, after having taken San Juan, Rivas and the transit route, and encountered a thousand obstacles and obstacles, sufficient had been done for the nation-al honor, and that no discredit fellows from being obliged to yield to the influence of unmitigated climate, having lost an enemy exhausted and without resources, better prepared to fly than to fight, and where sufficient has not been complete if Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras perform their duty.

In the same journal a letter from head-quarters is published, which says that Walker is unable to cope with the force brought against him, has adopted an unworthy system of warfare, and being master of the press, influences, public opinion by a circulation of false rumors and false accounts of the engagements he has had with the Costa Ricans. That on the 11th (April) after the battle of Rivas (of which no authorized account has been received, S. and H.) in which Walker lost nearly all his officers, he returned to Granada—or fled with his 300 men out of the 1,000 with which he attacked the city, and deceived the people, by performing illuminations, &c., into the belief that he had gained a victory.

That this contributed to keeping up Walker's influence, and that the Costa Ricans were unable, in the hurry and excitement of war, to sell themselves of the printing press that accompanied the army.

Another letter (dated April 26) states that owing to the cholera the Presidents and the army were about setting out for Rivas.

A letter addressed to the Bishop of San Jose, states that on the 11th, at 8 a. m., Walker, with 1,000 men, signed at Rivas, and battle lasted twenty hours, after which he retired with only 300 of his troops; that Walker's force occupied the whole of the defeat of all the valuables, and used the images to secure the doors and windows. The cross inlaid with diamonds was stolen, together with other valuables.

In the non-official part of the Boletin it is stated that of the last reinforcement sent to Walker not more than 150 reached him, owing to the others having deserted.

When these people are disposed to mendacity it is astonishing how they outrage credulity. If WALKER's army had been reduced to three hundred men, how happens it that the Costa Ricans failed to follow up their victories, and entirely disorganized the filibuster? Is it not clear that the evacuation of Nicaragua by the pitiful MORA and his troops would never have occurred, if they had proved triumphant. We have no doubt that the victories of the Costa Ricans at Rivas and Serapiqui are similar to that achieved by SANTA ANNA at Buena Vista, and which, during the contest, made of the one-legged hero in the Presidency, was about to be annually celebrated throughout Mexico with the greatest possible éclat. The bravado of MORA is but a flimsy pretext to conceal his reverses.

We fancy that the war in Nicaragua is about at an end. If Costa Rica, the most powerful of the States of Central America, having the largest and best provided standing army, effected by foreigners—has been ignominiously beaten, and compelled to terminate the war by abandoning Nicaragua, WALKER has nothing to fear from Guatemala, Honduras and San Salvador. The three latter States have not been parties to the struggle, and with the catastrophe before them of the leaders of the sublime Americano del Sud, will be more inclined than ever to keep the peace. We think that WALKER will not soon again be exposed to the invasion of STRARNS, gun by any Central American force—especially as immigration from the United States is daily adding to his strength.

The Railroad Disaster at Panama.

The Aspinwall Courier contains a list of the persons killed in the terrible catastrophe of the 9th instant. They number thirty-nine in all, which is the following twenty-nine have been identified:

DIED ON BOARD AT THE TIME OF THE ACCIDENT.—Daniel Stanyesant, Herman J. Baker, Thos. Crowley and son Thomas, Moses Wallace, John Mitchell, Jr., Thomas Holloway, N. Eide, C. Harvey, S. Hoffman, A. Prentiser, M. Read, J. F. Krauter, Robert Cheverington, Bridge Caudell.

Females—Julia Cannon, Mrs. Thos. Crowley, Mrs. Benonia Crowley, Mrs. J. Baker.

Passengers from Chagres, England.—John Bright, John James Gale, Ryan Johns, John Richard Johns, Thomas James, Benjamin Archer, Thos. Ford.

Residents of Aspinwall.—Henry Alvarenga, 30 years, native of Kingston, Jamaica; James J. Ross Dubreuna, aged about 23, a native of Kingston, Jamaica.

Not less than sixty persons were wounded, five of whom have since died. Almost all the wounded have broken limbs, and are shockingly bruised.

Among the items from Greytown's breakfast by the Panama papers, we find the following:

Schlesinger has not been shot, but Walker advised him to leave the country, also his men would murder him.

Kinney was still in Greytown, whose the people are suffering for provisions.

A brig with ammunition for Walker had arrived from the States, but H. M. ship Eurydice would not allow her to land her cargo. The Eurydice, it is said, overhauls every vessel even the canoes, entering the harbor.

From the South Pacific.

The latest dates are, Valparaiso, April 14th; Callao, 27th, Panama, 30th.

From Chili there is nothing of interest—during the late storms several lives were lost on the Cordilleras. The Rio Cachapoal and Cauquenes are reported to be impassable, and cattle is estimated at 8,000 head.

From Bolivia we learn that the President, Gen. Cordoba, has commuted the sentence of death passed on the leaders of the late attempt at revolution, and has ordered them to leave the country.

From Peru the only news is the prevalence of yellow fever at Lima and Callao. Nothing from Ecuador.

The Massachusetts House of Representatives has adopted, by 17 majority, the report coming at the repeal of the personal liberty bill.

From a despatch to the Charleston Courier we learn that the assault made by Mr. Brooks on Senator Sumner took place immediately after the adjournment of the Senate. Mr. Brooks struck him thirty-times, principally on the head. The assailant has been arrested.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—SENATE.—Mr. Colfax introduced a bill to test the practicability and usefulness of the atmospheric telegraph.

Mr. Pearl reported a bill to permit the Legislature of Iowa to determine for that State upon the application of a grant of land heretofore made in aid of the construction of railroads therein.

Mr. Mason discussed the action of the Naval Board, arguing that the proceedings should be set aside, so far as it was competent for Congress to do so.

Mr. Benjamin made a speech in favor of passing a bill for removing the obstructions from the mouth of the Mississippi, over the President's veto.

Mr. Toombs defended the action of the President in regard to the bill, after which, on motion, the subject was postponed until to-morrow, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the bill reported yesterday, granting one million twenty-eight thousand acres to Wisconsin for the construction of railroads therein, embracing a length of 500 miles, by a vote of 91 ayes to 61 noes.

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, reported a bill granting about a million acres of land to Alabama, in aid of railroads therein, which passed, under a motion for the previous question.

Mr. Bliss, of Ohio, made a strong anti-slavery speech; after which, the House adjourned.

The correspondence sent to the House to-day in the anticipated case of Mr. Crampton is of no very recent date. Mr. Dallas quotes a note of Lord Palmerston. The former accepts the latter of retaining important facts from the correspondence, and laid before Congress only that giving a view of the subject favorable to the English side only.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Ground was broken yesterday, at Port Monmouth, N. J., for the commencement of the New Jersey Southern Bay Railroad, which is designed to connect New York with Norfolk and other Southern cities by a route shorter by more than any now in use. Gov. Pollock presided over the ceremony.

Towards night a party assisted over returned between a party of Abolitionists and their employés on the south of which many persons were seriously injured.

Jefferson county has been visited by severe storms which have greatly damaged the crops in the eastern part of the State the crops look exceedingly fine.

The Indianola Bulletin says:

It has become quite a common sight to see camels and dromedaries, marching through our streets. The camels are now employed in carrying government freight from Powder Horn to the coast. They carry the enormous weight of 1000 pounds, and with the greatest ease. Their speed is about that of a horse, and miles that puts within sight of them. They are certainly most wonderful creatures.

MR. PILLSBURY TO BE HERE IN JUNE.—We learn that Mr. Pillsbury will be home in June, and that he is now probably in England, on his return from Egypt. His friends will anxiously expect his return, and will receive him with great warmth.

We take the following from the Baton Rouge Advocate of Monday. Bitter tyrants of the times implicates some one in a most damned of a character:

BLOODY TRAGEDY AT BATON ROUGE.—Killing of the American Chronicle Killed. We have accounts of a bloody and fatal affray which occurred in this city on Saturday evening between Mr. Marks, editor and proprietor of the Louisianian, and Mr. Robinson, editor of the Chronicle. The information is to the effect that Mr. Robinson was killed on the spot. The account of the fatal affair are different. One is, that the parties met at the post office, when Mr. M. accosted Mr. R. and demanded a retraction or language of a personal nature used by the latter in the Chronicle. Mr. R. replied that he had not, whereupon Mr. M. struck him, quickly could not retreat. Both parties immediately drew pistols and fired. Mr. Harris, receiving a slight wound in the chest, which fell. Mr. Robinson on fire, and shot Mr. Marks in the head, the ball passing through his brain. Mr. Marks was a native of Ireland, and a resident of this city for many years. He was a member of the Legislature from this parish, and was the friend of Mr. M. came forward and shot his antagonist through the head.

This account is corroborated as purporting accounts from eye-witnesses, down from Bayou Sara. Another is that Mr. Robinson was shot by Mr. Marks, and was in the act of firing at Mr. Marks, and was lying on the ground or floor of some house. He has been a member of Mr. Marks' family for many years, and is the friend of Mr. M. came forward and shot his antagonist through the head.
