ACADEMY OF MUSIC—Mr. Jack appears to have been playing in the city for some time, and variety will be given to the evening's entertainment by the orchestra. The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Jack, who makes his first appearance here as "Little Jack," in which he will play a variety of pieces. He is spoken of by the press wherever he has appeared as a prodigy in his line. We witnessed the performance of the "Wives of Windsor" last night and cannot overstate the quality of the orchestra. Mr. Jack's rendition of "The Merry Widow" was particularly noteworthy. The orchestra is better adapted to the character in that play than they are in those in "The Merry Widow" and Mr. Jack's rendition is better.

THE INDIAN OF RADICAL LEGISLATION
In his late message to the Legislature of Mississippi Governor Allen sets forth in strong language the indignation of Jackson and the extremists and the indignation of that body. The Jacksonian, commenting upon the message, says:
