JERUSCONI Deciding JOHN Mcc (RF), PLT MBEH. No. 134 Camp street,

Wednesday morning, July 15, 1846. Hr Ponk is a doubly fortunated main. Other Pire the rock is a doubty fortunated man. Other Re-scheins are content with a single drgan. He beast two rks official is the Washington Upion,—his home or-zer the Nashville Union. The one duly registers as opinious, never failing to approve and applaud them. In the beautiful of the provession of the conhan, and bestowing, day after day, the requisite pointity of fulsome adulation and sweet meat lang-ange. The other, in more hundle service, is satisfied on e. The other, in more huntle service, is satisfied, with echoing its prototype. They both grind out the same tunes, but the difference between them is, that the Washington organ is the original composer, while the Nashville organ merely copies the score, adding occasionally a few variatious, cadences and flourishes. Both, it will be remembered, were very zestoss and archert in the endorsement of the President's claim to the whole of Oregon—both subered at the 49 mea, and upheld our right to 54.40 with has much whemene as any of the Western Locofocos. Both are a little taken aback at the compromise of the dispute upon trutal less flowroughle than those accounts of the dispute upon trutal less flowroughle than those accounts of the dispute upon trutal less flowroughle than these accounts of the dispute upon terios less favorable than those repeatedly offered by the United States. The perplexity of the two organs was not, however, of very long duration. With a ontempt for sound logic and common sense that smally distinguishes them, they agree in lauding the resident for compelling England, by his stern and against dourse, to offer terms of negotiation far more orable than any she had ever been willing previous to accept; and in throwing upon the Senate the ndering a cost detable portion of the territory. It so happens that a very large proportion of those rountors who have, according to these journals, ceded way so much valuable territory, belong to the party which the two organs are incessinity employed in dordying. The Whigs could have accomplished nothing without their powerful aid. If the President must be subogized, it is rather hard that his panegyrists must be facto impugn the patriolism and homesty of the President's supporters. Such men as Asbley, Binnon, Baosy, Calbonn, Chalbers, Colquitt, Dix, Hawwoon, Houston, Lews, McDupfir, Niles, Pennybacker, Rosk, Sevier, Torney, Yulke, and Lecologous, too firm and faultful to be sugmatized by implication. They deserve heater face than to we implication. ov implication. They deserve a better fare than to be trampled upon, in order that Mr. Polk may reeve his wonted allowance of flattery and obsequi-discress. The President were really in earnest about 190, if the President were really in earnest about 190 pretensions, and constant in the conviction had our right to the whole of Gregor was clear and impostionable, he had an easy method of manifest-ng these views. Nothing compelled him to consult be Senate before accepting the proffered terms. He is Sonate before accepting the proffered terms. He assesses an exclusive constitutional right to receive a reject any proposition for a treaty. He thought made, nevertheless to adopt the novel plan of asking the advice of the Sonate. The object of this is tresparent as glass. He was anxious to coöperate and the treath of the same time that they did not back him in his extreme potent. tion. At the same time he was equally auxious to conclude his rampant Western supporters—the "aliat O egon-or-none" advocates. He, therefore, takes eser of the Senate, telling that body that his own or none are unchanged, but that in deference to the some of a large majority of the Senate, he is willing upon their suggestion, ployided it be concurre A a majority of two-thirds. Such at least is be a 3 to have been the purport of his secret message. It stokes us that both the Washington Union and whene Union, are unfortunate in their offorts to go be President out of the predicament in which b He has, after all, ing driously retreated from original position, showing that the pompous pro-me (4 the message, was very far from being sus-and by his subsequent acts. The queasiness that $420 to throw all accommability on the Senate, is centely unsatisfactory mode of escaping from eact charge of baving deserted the views en-d in his own mannesspand included among the Convention. Il s. Mercharts Marchia.
