Wednesday morning, Oct. 7, 1846. To the Subscribers of the Bee,

As many of our Subscribers and particularly those who are annual advertisers, have their places of business at a considerable distance from the Office of the BEE, we have been induced to establish for their convenience, a Publishing Office, at No. 13, Camp Street, near the City Bank. Advertisements for the Paper may be left there until 8 o'clock P. M., and

The N. Y. Sun has papers and letters from Vera Cruz to the lat September. Though the former contain nothing more than is already known, the private advices, according to the Sun, are so startling, that the Editors can hardly credit them. Santa Anna re-mained at his farm, preparing to lead the army in erson, it is said against Gen. Taylor. An order to this effect was expected daily at Vera Cruz, from the War Department, over which Gen. Alumonte now presides. Santa Anna is said to be looking for European aid, to enable him to "roll back the tide of airs to the banks of the Sabene," and the old story, of Spain rance and England being made parties to any treaty that Mexico may make with the United States, is again revived at Vera Cruz. General Almonte is the vorite candidate for the presidency, and no doubt is entertained of his election in December next. Santa Anna will lead the army, but will refuse to accept the esidency again, and at the end of the war, if h urvives, he proposes to follow the illustrious example of Wassington and Cincinnatus. Preparation were making for the election of members of Congress under the Constitution of '24. The Church, the Ary and the Bar are to be ordered to keep alonf from the elections. Great dissatisfaction prevails amon the Clergy in consequence of Santa Anna's restora tion and policy, and an open repure is expected be-tween the Church on the one hand and the people and the army on the other. Yucatan has sent in its dhesion to Santa Anna. The American army was becoming popular, as reports of its forbearance and liberality spread among the masses, and "Anneration to the United States" we are assured, is the watchword with the native Mexicans in all the northern de partments; and the European intervention, which Santa Anna is mid to be privately encouraging, is looked to by our Mexican correspondents as one of the surest means of compelling the Mexicans to adopt the principle of annexation in preference to the in the foregoing intelligence. That Almonte will be elected President of Mexico is probable enough, since advices via Matamoros, inform us that he has aires dy been chosen President ad interim. It is moreover acceedingly likely that SANTA ANNA will lead th Mexican forces against the Americans, since we know that he has been appointed Generalissimo the Army. The talk about European aid and Eur sean intervention we regard as atterly groundless. he same story has been started twenty times, an been as often contradicted and refuted. On the contrary, so far as concerns the only power to which Mexico could possibly look for assistance—Great Britain—the English journals have more than once de clared upon authority, that Mexico must expect ne her direct cooperation nor indirect succor. eived with the most absolute scepticism.

solicy which a European alliance would force upon

We are disposed to attach more credit to what ards the Americans throughout the northern denar unts recently received of Gen'l KEARNEY's expedi in to Santa Fé and capture of that city, prove tha e was unmolested during a march of 50 days, that pon arriving near the capital of New Mexico, he as allowed to proceed through a narrow defile, despite the threats of the Governor of the departm and that the 7,000 Mexicans assembled to resist him dispersed without striking a blow. All these circumstances tend to show that no very bitter feeling to hostility is cherished towards us, by the people of New MCAICO. When we reflect too that make the medical towards us, f the Central Government that department has o tained no protection, and been uniformly oppressed by taxgatherers and office holders, it is not unreason able to conclude that the inhabitants may be dispose to relinquish their fealty to Mexico, in favor of a power which has strength enough to maintain its possessions, and justice enough to extend to them the benefits of free and mild institutions.

trom Texas. By the arrival of the schr. Fairy we have received rom the army which they contain is not so ate as that received here a few days ago, it embrac some advices of interest.

The position of affairs at Matamoros was at the ime rather discouraging. The Mexicans about the own, in the confident belief that Taylor's army would be defeated, had grown boastfal and insolent in the event of the defeat of our forces, they the Mexicans; would probably rise upon Matamoros with a view to take it. Col. Clarke, in the meanwhile, was nforcing the strictest military discipline, had strength ened his troops by sending for a part of the regiment from Barita, and kept a vigilent guard by day and night. It is probable ere this that all danger of a revoit is over, as the Mexicans must have heard of th apture of Monterey.

Two spies were recently apprehended by General Patterson, who commands at Camargo, carrying etters to Mexican officers, and having accurate charts or mays of the encampment at Camerge and other places. They were tried, condemned and executed. The Mexican rancheros and others this side of the river were all moving to the other side, and apparently macking up, or disposing of their side. acking up, or disposing of their effects.

ago intending to return home. While on their way and greatly fatigued they were attacked by some thirty Mexicans, and one of their party, Mr. Stevens mortally wounded. The others fought like tigers, killed five or six Mexicans, severely wounded as many more, and put the heroes to flight. Poor Stevens was left in the prairie, being too far gone to help himself, and it being impossible to carry him

The California Regiment.

The three ships composing the California Expedition sailed from New York on Saturday moning, the 26th ult., under convey of the U. S. ship Probe. It uppears that they left in a hurry, and some hours sooner than was expected, in order that the Colone the Regiment might avoid a collision with the civil authorities. The Colonel had resisted a legal pro-cess which had been attempted to be served on him, and the civil authorities were preparing to enforce its service with the aid of a large armed no when the Colonel took the hint and departed forth with. The Herald says:

with. The Herald says:

"The worst of the story remains to be told, for some thirty of the volunteers and a capitain of a company were left behind by the Colonel in his herry.—These men, desirous to follow, chartered the yacht Pearsail, lying at the Battery, and proceeded after the fleet with the intention of overtaking their comrades, if possible, and taking their chance in the promised land. A woman, too, was left behind under very painful circumsances. She had come ashore, leaving her husband and children on board, for the purpose of purchasing some baker's bread for her iniant child, and while thus engaged the expedition gounder way and left her behind. As may and left her behind. As was seen walking up and down the Battery time, and was seen walking up and down the Battery like a maniae.

This is the last of this great expedition in this locality. It has at length departed from our shores, bound to a distant land, and in common with the rest of our citizens, we wish them God speed;

The men who were left behind assets be quartered.

DEATH IN THE COURT ROOM .- The argument of the Attorney-General in the case of Spencer, was suspended by a melancholy there in the Court room. Smith Scudder, Esq., of Elizabethtown, and an old and honorable member of the New Jersey Bar, (the ther of the District Attorney,) took his seat immelistely behind the Clerk's table, and his head was soon after noticed to hang back, and on going to him he was found dead.

Spencer Acquiren.—The trial of Spencer closed on the afternoon of the 26th ult, and after a delay of twenty-four hours, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The defence of inanity was successful. It was clearly established thate this disease was heditary in his family, and at the present time one of his nearest relatives is in the Asylum at Utica. When the verdict was rendered, the accused was much af-fected. He was to proceed on the 28th to Ution, in the care of his uncle, the Hon. J. A. last Session of Congress, after stating that "its object is not to assail or to uphold any party," gives the following very practical and impartial opinion respecting Mr. Polk's stability of character:

"Since the election of President Polk the country has seen wastly too much shifting and dodging of responsibility—here assumed and there declined, in both cases contrary to the Consutution. Mr. Polk interfered most actively and effectively even before his magueration with the admission of Texas—interfered wantonly and outrageously in the Mexican boundary, setting at defiance a law of Congress—assumed a fearful responsibility in ordering troops into Mexican possessions without sanction of law, thereby bringing on war—yet erred as much in shrinking from his duty in the matter of the Oregon notice, and here throwing on Congress the responsibility.
