First Distract Court.— But one arraigment took place on Sararday: Henry Summers alias Hungan, pleaded not guilty to the charge of robbery. A man named John Kepler officred himself as the security, for $5000, for the fiberation of George Forno, arrested, some admys secon a charge of having played at a banking game. He swore that, all his debus paid, he was worth $5,100, and that his property consisted of slaves and real estate situated in Lafayetta. Being asked the names of his slaves, he answered that he hald forgotten them; he made a similar aneral Government. The errand of the Commissioners was therefore, temporarily fruitless, and they were referred to the Government at Washington, as the only power in whose hands the war and peace making issues have been confided.

The British Courier reached Vera Orus on the 1st inst., with dates from the city of Mexico to the 28th ult. Mr. Trist, according to the 1st inst., was to have left the Capital on the 28th ult.

RECORDER RAMOS.—Two young promising obaps were brought up before his Honor, charged with larceny. It appears that they went, the previous night, into the yard of a house situated somewhere in the First Municipality, stole a cab, after having previously attached the horse toit, and then fled towards the public ball rooms. They were immediately arrested by some watchmen and locked up. Recorder Ramos will probably send them to the House of Refuge. Meanwhile the cab and the horse ace in the possession of the First Municipality. The owner may come and claim them.
