PARISH OF ORLEANS Monday the 24th instant, at 12 o'clock, before W. Jones Coffee house in the city of Laffyette, I will expose at public sale, the moveable property belonging to the succession of the late Andrew Gibert of the mechanism to the succession of the late Jaby B. Gave of the Court F. DUGUE, judge.

AR BROCARD wishing to comply with the wishes as of many respectable families residing in this city has procured in uitable place, very commodious, to form a Musical Academy, in which the pupils pursuing good principles, and being emulated with the desire, that invariably results from irivalry will obtain the end which could not be anticipated from the ordinary method.

This school will be formed similar to the Royal Conservatory of France. There will be 3 classes—each class to be for an hour and a half.

In the 1st class, the lessons will be divided into two parts; the first part will be entirely consecrated to the three-ry of Music, and each scholar shall put down upon a book made especially for the purpose, the explanations of the master. The second part will be devoted to teaching the attorney will be devoted to teaching the strongest as well as the feeblest can take that part which suits the voice.

The second class is for the pupils who know something of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to learn how to sing in the presence of the solfierro who desire to lear
