

THE DAILY BEE, PUBLISHED BY
M. S. FORDWELL & CO.
Editor and Proprietor,
J. W. DODD, M. S. FORDWELL,
T. B. DODD.

DAILY PAPER, ONE CENT IN ADVANCE. 810-COURTESY PAPER, once weekly. (one copy per week.)

ALL ADVERTISEMENTS MUST GIVE ONE MAN'S NAME, A WRITING, before they can be allowed to appear.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.— The carrier who has been the subject of the recent trouble between Clark and Folsom, having been taken sick, and the new carrier being somewhat in suspense, we have to postpone those of our advertisers who have not yet sent their replies, to give notice of their names and residence at our office.

Our readers will, we trust, pardon us the very limited amount of reading matter which appears in our columns, in view of the circumstances by which it is occasioned. In the course of a few days we hope to be enabled to present our continue as well as usual as usual.

TO THE PUBLIC.—

The "Daily Bee," comprising the Bulletin, Crescent, Crescent Delta, True Delta, and Bee, conceive themselves under the necessity of laying before the public a detailed and impartial history of the disastrous and unfortunate transaction of the principal leaders of our City, and which has resulted in the abandonment of work by every cooperative contractor who has participated in the same. To this end, we have engaged John A. Clark, an association of practical printers, regarding itself the right to establish fixed rates of compensation for all work done by its members, and bidding each by the most strictest and tyrannical dictation. Most of the men of New Orleans have on various occasions, been compelled to accept such rates, and sometimes they have been forced to accept.

Sixty-eight years ago, the Typographical Union, comprising a word or wages, raised the price of composition from 40 cents to 50 cents per thousand words—a increase of 25 per cent—and on the same basis, the men of New Orleans, who were then the instrumental voices of the Union, had reluctantly inclined. "Cost trop tard!"

Clark's initial has been followed by his several brothers, and now he has again repeated the terrible confabulation in Boston, where he now resides, too, that he has gratified his desire.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on trial for several days past in the Court of Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been opened by the proper authorities, and the same have been returned to the proper persons as evidence. They were brought to the city by the Postmaster.

The founder of Robert Barber, Bridgeport, N. J., was destroyed by fire on the 28th instant, and the building was a total loss.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of
Common Pleas, having failed to agree.

The letters seized per Africa have been
opened by the proper authorities, and the
same have been returned to the proper
persons as evidence. They were brought
to the city by the Postmaster.

The late Mr. John C. Clark, a
notable man, died at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., aged 60 years.

Mr. Clark, a merchant of New Haven, Connecticut, on the evening of the 26th ult.,
was shot dead in a hotel room, in Boston,
by whom Clark was attacked. The
murderer was arrested.

A liquidus editor under the Mainline
Press, Boston, which has been on
trial for several days past in the Court of Common Pleas, having failed to agree.