Everything you thought you knew about Christmas and the beginnings of its festivities is about to be challenged in the most thought provoking way. This book is a detailed; word for word by comparative analysis about the commonly practiced belief and religion of the Christmas celebration. Most people who engage in this holiday do so on the premise that the Bible supports the event and the very day itself . . .December 25th. However, after meticulously looking at Biblical Truth and historical fact – one must reevaluate their holiday season belief and trade it in for Bible Truth.

The irony of the Christmas holiday and celebration is diametrically opposed to the record in the Bible. This is important because the Bible was a pivotal landmark for America’s beginnings. But like all superpower Nations and Kingdoms in the annals of history – America has followed the steps of great fallen Nations and Kingdoms that have seen their own demise. How is this so? Traveling way back in time to the days of the ancient Chaldeans and the tower of Babel many of these superpower Nations and Kingdoms started out with God but decided to go their own way. When putting these facts together and looking at the path mighty Nations and Kingdoms have taken rising from obscurity to sovereign world powers to pride and subsequently to great demise, this is what we know from history:

KINGDOMS AND NATIONS

THEIR BEGINNING

THEIR DEMISE

The Great Tower of Babel in the valley of Shinar.	Destroyed because of their great pride and egotistical and ungodly intentions.
The rise of the Egyptian Dynasties and superpower civilized Nation of the known world.	The Descendants of Ham settled in the Land of Ham (Africa) to become the greatest power then. Brought down low because they forsook the God of Heaven.
The re-rise of Babylon as Egypt was slowly dying. Babylon becomes mighty under Nebuchadnezzar.	Profound prophecies from the Jewish prophets of the Old Testament foretelling Babylon’s demise and destruction due to the wrath of God.
History shows the Persian Empire ransacking the Great Babylonian Empire. Persia then becoming a world superpower.	This superpower’s demise came with the swift and precision attacks by Alexander the Great.
Greece then becomes the world’s superpower for a time until ancient Rome enters the picture.	With all his military brilliance and military might Alexander the Great conquered the world only to die at age 33.
The ancient Roman Empire outlived and cover more geographical territory than the preceding Empires. Ancient Rome lived from 753 B.C to 476 A.D = 1229 years	Ancient Rome perhaps the most influential on all the civilized world of today. As far as Christianity is concerned – it’s practices and bedrock beliefs were born from Ancient Rome.

That being the case it becomes imperative for EVERY Christian and believer of the Christmas holiday to examine some fine points. One being the actual origin and practices associated with Christmas realizing that EVERYTHING has an origin {except the Eternal God}. And two, being the profound influence not only Ancient Rome had on the world, but the influence Catholicism, nestled in the heart of ancient Rome, continues to have on the world.

The History channel at <http://www.history.com/content/christmas> address several facts concerning Christmas and it's practices. For instance, on that site you will find the fact that Christmas was not declared a Federal Holiday until 1870. If the practice and belief was not recognized by the Feds until 1870 A.D over one thousand years plus AFTER the birth of Christ how is that so? Is it because one would say that the Government did not want to acknowledge the birth of Christ or is because of the eclectic practices surrounding the holiday? The Holy Apostles writings of the work of Christ compiled today in the Bible were first recorded some 20 years after His resurrection. Why take over one thousand years to begin celebrating his so-called birthday? Because even the Feds recognized the deep religious origins of a holiday celebration that came out of a competitive mind set with the ancient practices of Saturnalia. The history channel also addresses the following:

- Christmas Reinvented
- Christmas Tree
- History of Santa
- Saturnalia
- World Traditions

Does it strike you as odd and perhaps strange that an Educational channel in the world of mass media simply will lay out the facts about Christmas. And most folk will probably nod their head and say, “hmmm – that’s interesting,” but will scoff and become irritated when a minister of the Gospel says the same identical thing?

I have selected certain excerpts from the Book 101 Biblical Words (About The Christmas Holiday) to engage the mind of the intelligent, reasoning individual about what is historical fact against what is Biblical Truth. However, like I say in my introduction this book is only for the one who is a seeker of Truth. I followed within all my power and ability to not be judgmental or condemning but factual and analytical.

The following pages are the complete introduction, first chapter comparing the early Christian beliefs with the modern 21st Christian beliefs. There are no pages on this site or in this article dealing with the actual 101 Words. The 101 Biblical Words is broken down in this manner:

- ✓ 76 words straight out of the Bible (about the birth of Jesus Christ) pg. 25
- ✓ 25 words straight out of the Bible (about the Christmas celebration) pg. 77
- ✓ An appendix of 9 Christmas words. pg. 121

The words comparing the Christmas celebration to what the Bible actually records must be read by purchasing the Book – 101 Biblical Words (About The Christmas Holiday). However, here is taste of what you can expect to find within the pages of this eye opening Book and deep soul searching Truth versus family tradition, customs, religion, inaccurate, sound doctrine, personal beliefs, church indulgence, worldly, personal preference, and on and on and on.

INTRODUCTION

The practice and belief of the celebration of Christmas has become a hallmark of not only those who follow the teachings of Jesus Christ but of an abundance of followers who choose to follow nothing else of Jesus but his so called “birthday.” The Christmas celebration is perhaps the most deeply seated religious belief and practice of all time. The celebration of Christmas has been debated, rejected, embraced, loved and hated since the days of Constantine the Great of the ancient Roman Empire as far back as 325 A.D. The oxymoron would be “we know December 25th is not the actual birthday of Jesus Christ but Jesus is the reason for the season.” Or, “let’s keep Christ in Christmas.”

These catchy phrases and reasoning would be like someone saying it is wrong to lie but a little white lie never hurt anybody. Or as long as your lie does not hurt or harm anyone it’s o.k.. As a parent and even as a single person – you have been told all your life not to tell a lie and to practice honesty in all your ways. Parents make it a point no matter how unsuccessful the parents themselves may have been in life – THEY ALWAYS TELL THEIR CHILDREN NOT TO LIE! And EVERY parent that I have come in contact with feels shame when their child tells a lie. People who lie ultimately reflect back on the parents and the upbringing of the child. But our society and primarily Christian churches repeatedly speak, endorse and practice lies EVERY SINGLE December.

The most learned Bible scholar of our day with seemingly successful ministries with memberships well into the thousands have not been able to cease from lying. Perhaps the most deceitful practice of humankind is to lie and find justification and rationalization to perpetuate lies. A cursory study of the account in the book of Genesis concerning Adam, Eve and the serpent reveal the origin of lies from the arch enemy of our souls. Ever since the first lie all of Satan’s practices and beliefs are founded on lies. It is unfortunate and a sad testimony that the average Christian (Bible scholars included) continue to fuel the fire of Satan by accepting and endorsing his lies. Look at two Biblical truths in the Holy Scriptures – the first involving Genesis chapter 3 and the second involving an accurate discernment by Jesus Christ concerning the nature and true character of Satan:

“Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the women, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the women said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the women, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the women saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.”

Several things occur in this account which I will present to you for your consideration throughout this book:

- Sight, Desire, Gratification, Involvement

The weakness found in every human being involve the activity of the five senses. We generally make decisions based on what we can see. Then desire is awakened in our soul and the need to gratify ourselves. From gratification comes the finality of involvement at any level of the thing that caught our visual attention. It is the enemy of the faith of EVERY Christian that captivates the sense of sight that leads to the other three – desire, gratification and involvement. This is not necessarily bad, but when the thing we see would lead us down a path of lying and unbecoming a true believer in the teachings and ways of the Lord Jesus Christ, then it is bad.

Secondly you see the following consequences to sight, desire, gratification and involvement. You have:

- Cover up, Fear, Lying and Blame

“. . .they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves aprons.” Verse 7. They knew they were wrong but made every attempt to cover up their wrong resulting in shame.

“And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.” Verses 9,10.

The Almighty God caught them in their disobedience and they became afraid undoubtedly of the consequences they would inevitably face because He did say, in the day you eat you would die. Keep in mind they undoubtedly did not understand the full scope of “dying” because EVERYTHING in the Garden was alive. They certainly DID NOT understand that dying for them meant death for EVERY SINGLE human being born after them.

“And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? And the man said, the women whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.” Verses 11,12.

Two reactions from Adam occur in these verses. Instead of answering the Almighty God directly, he chose to lie by not answering the question, subsequently resulting in Adam blaming his help mate. The results of seemingly a harmless little conversation involving sight, desire and gratifying oneself and becoming involved in partaking what should not have been partaken of, introduced death to all humankind. The involvement brought on covering up exposure as a result of disobedience and discovering an emotion inside their heart they had not known before. Adam then lied and blamed Eve who then placed the blame on the true culprit. Sadly enough apart from a true spiritual conversion of an individual, lying is the lot of all humankind. Everyone must face and overcome the temptation of the sense of sight which brings desire, gratification, involvement, which elicits cover up, fear, lying and blame.

T H E G R E A T L I A R

Like the greatest story ever told, the assessments and discernment of Jesus Christ are the greatest ever since the creation of Adam. In fact, ALL the words of Jesus Christ excel beyond the greatest human minds that have ever lived. When Jesus identifies a thing and passes judgment on a thing or the life of an individual, His word and His judgment carry eternal consequences. With that in mind, consider what Jesus said about the devil and what Jesus called him:

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.”

John 8:44

A couple facts you need to consider when reading this book and they are 1) To unveil to you how great and how deep the lie has been perpetuated since its inception. 2) You must realize that EVERY lie has its origin in the devil who Jesus said is a:

- Murder (from the beginning)
- Abides not in the truth
- Speaks lies
- He is a liar and father of lies

Was Adam and Eve so enamored by the suggestion of the serpent to think they would become gods possessing eternal life and omniscience and omnipotence? Did they truly not believe what the Creator said about dying if they were to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil? Apparently, their belief in the words of the Almighty Creator and the consequences of their disobedience was easily challenged by the suggestion and words of the greatest liar of all time. As the progenitors of Adam and Eve, mankind easily follows the ways and suggestions of the same culprit that led the first humans into a world of disbelief and the desire to be their own gods by questioning the inerrancy of the words of the Almighty God.

Consider that the devil (murdered) Adam and Eve by lying to them and leading them to disobey their Creator. The devil was successful in stealing life from both Adam and Eve. This characteristic of the devil is also mentioned by Jesus in John’s Gospel chapter 10 verse 10. “The thief cometh not but for to steal, kill and destroy. . .” Because he abides not in the truth, he continuously speaks lies. Even in the context of quoting Scripture, he is lying because Christ said he ABIDES NOT in the truth. And Jesus finalized his discernment of the devil by identifying him as the father of lies. EVERY lie has its origin from hell of which the devil originated the act and practice of lying. A sobering thought when you consider the content and message of this book. If December 25th IS NOT the actual birthday of Jesus Christ and the regalia and festivities surrounding the Christmas celebration ARE NOT Biblically sound, then the question begs to be answered “who sowed tares among the wheat?” This book seeks to Biblically and unquestionably answer the who, what, when and how the tares of the so called birthday and celebration of Jesus Christ’s birth became such a worldwide practice and belief. But remember EVERY act, EVERY lie, EVERY sin is forgivable (except blaspheming the Holy Spirit Mark 3:28-29). It is by and through the blood of Jesus Christ that forgiveness occurs. Until you acknowledge the truth and seek to obey the words of the Almighty God, it is a sad testimony that MANY people will continue to live the lie and live a life of lies of which makes you subject to the father of lies. Satan, who is the arch enemy of the Creator of all things who is God Almighty, is the same enemy of the children of God. Like the greatest story ever told, Satan is the greatest liar of all time! And his lies once given birth generally affect mankind for generations to come. ONLY true children of the Almighty God who have anointed their eyes with eyesalve (Revelation 3:18) are able to see the lie, reject the lie and live by the Truth of God's Word that will make you free (John 8:32).

CHRISTIAN AND CHRISTIANITY

Amongst the average Christian their belief and practice is a mixture of paganism, tradition, religion, “church” doctrine (meaning denominations), family inheritance and worldly ways, thereby making “Christianity” a religion in itself instead of true followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is imperative I give you the origin and makeup of the word “Christian” and the practice of “Christianity” before delving into the topic of this book. If Christianity is defined by the common beliefs and practices of the followers of Christ, then EVERY Christian’s beliefs should resemble the beliefs and practices of the Christians in the Bible. If there is variance in beliefs and practices as set forth in the Holy Scriptures how can one call it pure Christianity?

THE DEFINITION OF THE WORD CHRISTIAN

- One who professes the beliefs in the teachings of Jesus Christ.
• Merriam-Webster Online Dictionary
- Professing belief in Jesus as Christ or following the religion based on the life and teachings of Jesus.
• The Free Online Dictionary
- Someone who believes in and follows the teachings of Jesus Christ
• Cambridge Dictionaries Online
- Belonging To Christ
• Young’s Analytical Concordance to the Bible
- Adherent of Jesus
• Vine’s Expository Dictionary of Biblical Words

From a secular and Biblical dictionary and Bible concordance, the definition of a Christian is someone who believes in and follows the TEACHINGS of Jesus Christ. One can easily find the teachings of Jesus Christ revealed in the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John). This involves no epiphany of sorts or a Bible scholar to read and understand what Jesus taught. However, one must understand the origin of the word Christian IS NOT from an Apostolic revelation or teaching, rather a word from the antagonist and persecutors of the followers of Christ.

In the Bible, the record shows that “Christians” were first called by that name in Antioch of Syria. They were identified as such by their persecutors - NOT by a name or title given to them by divine revelation. Subsequently, as the following of Jesus Christ grew and Christians became more and more persecuted, a “deliverer” of sorts by the name of Constantine the Great brought the underground Christians out of hiding. As such, the Roman Emperor, Constantine the Great is credited for his Great influence among Christians by declaring Christianity as the Roman state religion. Hence, the name Christian became most popular during Constantine’s time (around the 4th-5th century A.D.). For thousands of years since Constantine the Great this word has become widely accepted world wide as the identification mark of those who profess, believe, follow and practice the teachings and ways of Jesus Christ. But I must throw a serious monkey wrench at this juncture as the word Christian has lost its original and intended meaning since the days of the Apostles in Antioch of Syria. Consider the following brief comparisons:

1st CENTURY CHRISTIAN 21st CENTURY CHRISTIAN

Sexual Abstinence desired and sought after.	Condoms strongly suggested/sexual abstinence is not encouraged. Viewed as an unrealistic practice.
Godliness and Holiness means not to even look upon a women and desire her in your heart.	America alone is overwhelmed with looking upon women and exploiting them and vice versa with women to men in the ungodly industry of pornography.
One man / one woman marriage relationship.	Multiple sex partners in vogue. Gay and lesbian lifestyle highly endorsed and accepted worldwide.
One God and Father of Jesus Christ.	God is the same god under many religions with many names. For instance, Allah is the same God of the Bible and Jesus Christ is minimized and even denied as the true son of God.
Heaven and hell a real place with real benefits and or consequences.	You make Heaven or hell here on earth. Some Christians even deny the existence of hell and its consequences.
Satan and demons must be resisted and overcome.	Satan is taught as a religious fear factor and or mind control and does not really exist. Demons are a religious scare tactic.
Jesus Christ most definitely taught about the end of the age and the judgment to come on the earth.	There is no judgment coming and Christians must reclaim the nation and the world to bring God back in the land. In other words: "take back the land."
Sickness, disease, pestilence are all overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the Power of His name.	Concerts held to raise money to find a cure for sickness, disease and pestilence.
Repent and be baptized for the remission of sins and you will be saved.	The teaching of inclusion that God loves everyone and everyone will be saved and no one is going to a false "hell." Everyone is included in God's plan of salvation.
Die to the world, the flesh and the devil to please God.	Live to the world, the flesh and the devil to please self in the areas of wealth and prosperity.

There is a startling difference between a 1st century Christian and a 21st century Christian. Yet both times and cultures claim to be "followers of Christ's" teachings. However, the record speaks for itself - one must read thoroughly the teachings of Jesus Christ found in Matthew, Mark, Luke and John to ascertain what Christ taught and believed. If after reading the Gospel records found in the Bible and your lifestyle and practice looks more like a 21st century Christian you need to ask yourself the question: Am I a Christian by the standards of the followers of Christ in Antioch of Syria in the 1st and 2nd centuries? Or, am I a Christian by the standards of the 21st century beliefs and practices? If 21st century standards - your religion does not mirror that of what Jesus Christ the true Son of God taught, and requires dire need of change and re-building on the one and only Rock of our Salvation - Jesus Christ - the Lord and Son of God.

CHRISTIAN AND CHRISTIANITY

Both words have their origin in mockery and scorn. The word itself is not a particularly bad or offensive word, but the meaning and belief associated with it over the centuries have become greatly diminished. It is one of those things that will probably never go away for those who embrace its identification as their religious faith. But at the same time in truth, it is one of those words that DID NOT originate from the true followers of Christ.¹ A few definitions of the word Christian are as follows:

- A Christian is one who by definition “Belongs to Christ.”
- That name would presuppose that EVERYONE who calls themselves a Christian should BELONG to Christ.
- This would further indicate that EVERYONE who is a Christian is a follower of Christ and adheres to the teachings of Christ.
- Partly the problem exists because ministers and churches over the years have not Biblically defined the Bible’s image of a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- The name Christian has become solidly accepted as a name endorsed of the Lord himself. Thereby, the ministers and churches that have perpetuated the name have done so because of the influence of the world.

I would most definitely HAVE to deal with the name Christian because the precedence of name changing and name meanings was set by the Creator of man Himself. The Almighty God in the Holy Scripture changed and identified his children by certain names and callings. Additionally, God Himself has over 30 different names that describe His ways and mighty acts. That being the case it is proper and right to deal with the name Christian due to the fact of its original meaning and the rapid diluting of its identification since first used in Antioch of Syria.

WHAT’S IN A NAME?

What makes names important to the Almighty God and definitive to those of us who use them? Take for example the following:

Abram changed to – Abraham	Genesis 17:5
Sarai changed to – Sarah	Genesis 17:15
Jacob changed to – Israel	Genesis 32:28

You MUST ask the question why did God change their names? Not to mention the fact that Moses asked God of his name when he would encounter the Pharaoh and Hebrew people to tell them that God sent me unto you. God’s response to Moses was tell them “I AM” has sent you. It is because the Hebrews understood the significance of names and they also appreciated genealogy to trace if the name was significant to royalty or priestly or Kingly Dynasty. It was not just a matter of picking names out of the air. Each name whether Godly or not carried with it the definition, meaning and life behind that name. Consider a few of the names of God Himself:

Elohim Plurality in Unity	Jehovah-Hoseenu The Lord Our Maker
El The Strong One	Jehovah-Jireh The Lord Will Provide
Elah, Eloah The Adorable One	Jehovah-Rophi The Lord The Physician
El Elyon God Most High	Jehovah-Nissi The Lord Our Banner
Ei Roi The Lord That Seeth	Jehovah-M'Kaddesh The Lord Doth Sanctify
El Elohe-Israel God of Israel	Jehovah-Eloheenu Lord Our God
El Olam God of Eternity	Jehovah-Eloheka Lord Thy God
El Shaddai The Almighty All Sufficient God	Jehovah-Elohay The Lord My God
Adon-Adonai Jehovah Our Ruler	Jehovah-Tseboath The Lord of Hosts
Jah The Independent One	Jehovah-Rohi The Lord My Shepherd
Jehovah The Eternal, Ever-Loving One	Jehovah-Tsidkenu The Lord Our Righteousness
Jehovah-Elohim The Majestic Omnipotent One	Jehovah-Makkeh The Lord Shall Smite Thee
Jehovah-Gmolah The God of Recompenses	Jehovah-Shammah The Lord Is There

CHANGE OF NAME OF BELIEVERS

If a person's name or a religious name of a thing were not significant, then there would be no need for the name change that will take place at the judgment seat of Christ for all who overcome the world.

“He that hath an ear let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.”²

The prophet Zechariah also addresses the elimination of idol gods and their names during the millennium.

“And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the NAMES of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. . . And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his NAME one.”³
{Emphasis mine}

It is clear the Almighty God DOES NOT RETAIN ANY NAMES of idols or the idols themselves. He will completely destroy ALL idols and their NAMES WILL NEVER be mentioned again. What is the name Christian and Christianity but a name assigned to followers of Christ by unbelievers and eclectic beliefs and practices deriving from ancient Egypt and Babylon; revived, endorsed and instituted by ancient Rome. The new name of the children of God during the millennial reign of Jesus Christ will undoubtedly be a name associated with the character of the child of God. For instance with Abram his new name (Abraham) means “Father of many.” Be prepared to have your name changed and your new body reflecting for all Eternity your relationship with the Almighty God and the victory you demonstrated while in this life. The Bible also identifies the Eternal Father and Almighty God as:

Rock	God in His strength and permanency
Refuge	God is our haven from the avenger
Fortress	God is our defense against the foe
Shield	God a preserver of his children
Sun	God is the source of light and life
Crown and Diadem	Sovereignty and radiance
Wall of Fire	God who compasseth our path
Refiner and Purifier	God as the remover of dross
Husband	God in his providential role

There are two things that most people enjoy:

1. A good story
2. A good book

Also in the Bible there are two verses that are opposite but go hand in hand:

Hosea 4:6 and John 8:32. The Jewish prophet Hosea tells us that God’s people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. But the most startling part of that verse is when God says “because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.”

Who in their right mind wants to be forgotten – let alone for God Almighty to declare that he will forget those who reject His knowledge of Truth. And God further says that He will forget the next generation. That is a scary thought! But then Jesus gives us the answer to being forgotten by God when He declared in the Gospel of John chapter 8 verses 31 and 32 –

“ . . . If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

SEVERAL POINTS TO NOTICE IN THESE VERSES:

One qualifier	=	“if”
One requirement	=	“continue in my word”
One power word	=	“Indeed”
Two results	=	“ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free”

That’s what 101 Biblical Words (About The Christmas Holiday) is all about:

1. Receiving the knowledge of the Truth.
2. Continuing in the Truth (to truly be called disciples of the Lord).
3. Knowing the Truth and subsequently being made absolutely free because of the Truth.

When Christians complain or even comment about how Christmas is celebrated – perhaps you should revisit your perspective of the entire Christmas celebration based on the Truth of Scripture. 101 Biblical Words examines word for word surrounding the birth of Christ and word for word surrounding the celebration of Christmas. You be the judge – read the comparative analysis in the new eye opening book titled 101 Biblical Words and allow the Truth to make you free.
