

WIKIMEDIA
ZA

State of the Chapter
2012

Legal status

- Non-profit organisation created
- Last round of red tape will be finished this week.

Software Freedom Day stall

- Explained to school groups how to use Wikipedia
- Got children translating articles that they cared about into sePedi

isiXhosa workshop

- Training potential Xhosa Wikipedia editors
- In collaboration with University of Cape Town
- Not an official project of WMZA, but partly run by our members

WLM with Africa Centre

- Collaboration between WMZA, Africa Centre and provincial government
- Photo competition: South African national monuments
- Will be main event of government Heritage Day celebrations on 23 Sept 2012
- Winning photos will tour galleries
- Government will support by ensuring that museums market event to public

Train the Trainer

- Event to educate librarians and educators on how to use Wikipedia
- Will be 1 or 2 day event with training by experienced wikipedian

SOPA

- Prepared position statement
- Gave information to press