"... Even though he was a prince, he was one of our comrades. ... He also followed the political philosophy of the grand teacher Thakhin Kodaw Hmaing. ... He wrote a poem in English called Long Live Ludu Daw Amar for my 70th birthday celebration. It was in 1985 as I remember vividly. Since then, he had been writing a poem every year, and all in English language. The last one was for my 90th birthday, and the poem contains 90 lines.
